Vol. III of the HORN PAPERS includes maps showing patents, etc. for southwestern counties of Penna. This was checked - it is indexed:

1. No entry for DUNCAN EVANS (or Mayberry - some others, espec. David)
2. No EVANS is in Peters Twp. at all.

1790 Census was checked.

No entry for DUNCAN EVANS in 1790 anywhere in the state.
In Washington County, there were the following Evans entries:
ABRAHAM, 252, DANIEL 252, DAVID 248, DAVID 249, JAMES 249, JAMES 251 JESSE 249, JNO. 247, JOHN 249, JOHN 251, JOHN 256, MARGARET 269, SAMUEL 257, WALTER 257, ZACHARIAH 251.

I checked card file at Carnegie Library which indexes biographical information in all county histories for Penna. - many Evans entries, but none for DUNCAN EVANS.

Also, I checked:
1. McFarland: WASHINGTON AND WASHINGTON COUNTY, including reading all information on Peters Twp. - Negative
2. Crumrine: HISTORY OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, which our Society indexed. No entry for Duncan Evans in index, although other Evans in the book.
3. Crumrine: VIRGINIA COURT RECORDS - no Duncan Evans in index. References to other Evans, however.
4. Thompson: HISTORY OF PETERS CREEK - Nothing on Duncan Evans - no Evans in book.
5. Mayhill: LANCASTER CO. DEEDS (pub. 1973) Covers 1729-1770 - no listing for Duncan Evans, but has other Evans
6. Anderson, Bart: INDEX TO CHESTER CO., PA. WILLS AND INTESTATES 1713-1850. Has 2½ pages of Evans entries . Nothing for Duncan. We can check this if we ever find Duncan's father's name .

I have abstracted and everyname indexed wills in first couple of will books of Washington County. The following will does not name Duncan, and may be entirely unrelated, but I found it interesting since it mentioned land in Kentucky, from father, etc. - could this be a son of Duncan's who stayed in Washington County?

WASHINGTON COUNTY WILL BOOK I, p. 200:

crombie. All probate matters now came before this court and occupied a large share of its attention, this department being attended to specially by the three associate judges.

Revs. Philip Gatch and John Sale, having produced the proper credentials, were authorized to celebrate and solemnize marriages, and did a large business in the wedding line, as the old records show. The last will and testament of William Long was exhibited and proved by Nathan Glaze and John Espy, and admitted to record, being the first will probated in the county under the State government. The court appointed Roger W. Waring clerk for seven years, who gave bond, with Peter Light and Daniel Kain as securities. Aaron Goforth was allowed twenty dollars as prosecutor for the term, and Joshua Collett twelve dollars for prosecuting State cases in the Supreme Court. Maurice Witham, a Baptist minister, was authorized to solemnize marriages. And so closed the first term of the Common Pleas Court of this county, after a session of four days, beginning business at six o'clock each morning.

Common Pleas Court, June, 1804; same judges and court officials as at last term, save Judge Dunlavy, who was absent. The following was the grand jury: Robert Higgins (foreman), George Davidson, William Hunter, Philip Smizer, Jeremiah Beck, Jr., Ephraim McAdams, John Coulthar, Sr., Samuel Robinson, Elihu Hopkins, Thomas Fee, Joseph Dugan, William Perry, Henry Willis, Conrad Harsh,—fifteen, all told,—who were sworn, proceeded to business, returned indictments, and were discharged. The last will of Alexander Buchanan, deceased, was proved and admitted to record. The case of Ebenezer Osborn vs. William Lytle for damages was tried before this jury: Josiah Booth, Isaac Reed, William Laycock, Jesse Swem, John Mefford, Gibbins Bradbury, Adam Hoy, Levi Tingly, Isaac Ellis, William Crossley, John Charles, John Lakin; verdict for plaintiff of forty-seven dollars and twenty-five cents. Revs. John Collins and Francis McCormick, two noted Methodist preachers, were authorized to solemnize marriage. The suit of John Wharton vs. John Miller—plea, nil debit—was tried before the following jury: Joseph Moore, John Kain, Amos Smith, Jeremiah Beck, Jr., Houton Clarke, Robert Townsley, John Snider, Daniel Kidd, James Morrow, David Loofburrough, Ephraim McAdams, John Williams; and a verdict was given for plaintiff of one dollar and seventy-five cents. Motion in arrest of judgment overruled, and judgment on the verdict.

It appeared that three stray hogs taken by William Lyon, for which he paid seven dollars into the county treasury, were afterwards claimed by John White, who sued Lyon and at this term got judgment for the hogs; thereupon the court ordered the treasurer to pay back to Lyon his seven dollars, but the costs of suit—which were considerable, there being some ten witnesses in attendance four days each—he had to bear. The court ordered the sheriff to lay off the prison-bounds in a square, no part of which is to be more than eighty rods from the jail; which prison margin was for unfortunate debtors, not criminals. The court, after a session of four days, held by the associate judges alone, adjourned.

dent judge, Philip Gatch, John Wood, and Ambrose Ranson, associate judges, with same court officials as at last term. A grand jury was called, but not a sufficient number answered, and those present were discharged and attachments issued for the absentees. The last will of James Lakin was proved by George Brown and Thomas Seaton, and Sarah and Joseph Lakin appointed executors. Joseph Lakin was appointed administrator of John Lakin, deceased; David Roudebush of Daniel Roudebush, deceased; and Sarah Boothby administratrix of Josiah Boothby, deceased. Rev. Levi Rogers was authorized to solemnize marriages, and in his time was a doctor, preacher, lawyer, sheriff, and legislator.

About this time a big fuss was kicked up by Roger W. Waring, county clerk, on one side, and Thomas Morris, John Hewitt, and David Loofburrough on the other, and they were all indicted, tried by a jury, found guilty, and each fined three dollars and costs; from which trouble civil suits followed: That of Loofburrough vs. Waring was submitted to the following jury: John Bennett, William S. Jump, Joshua Manning, Henry Cuppy, Robert Right, David Colglazier, John Snider, Abram Sells, William Simonton, George Swank, Peter Light, and Daniel Kidd. Plaintiff subpœnaed the following witnesses: Samuel Beck, John South, William South, John Hewitt, James Winters, Mary Cook, and Henry Willis. The defendant moved that the witness John Hewitt be rejected on the ground of interest, but the court overruled the motion. Mr. R. S. Thomas, attorney for plaintiff, moved that plaintiff be permitted to appear with his attorney; motion overruled by court. That looks a little strange,—that a party should not be allowed to appear with his counsel to manage his own case. The defendant's witnesses were John Evans, Ramoth Bunton, Daniel Kain, and Nicholas Sinks. After a full hearing the jury returned a verdict of two cents damages for the plaintiff. As the judgment did not carry costs, it would have seemed like a poor speculation for Mr. Loofburrough; but we shall see how his luck affected the other two cases against Waring. Nicholas Sinks, Houton Clarke, James Kain, and Robert Townsley renewed their tavern licenses, and William Fee was appointed inspector of flour. Adjourned after four days' session.

February term, 1805; same judges as at last term, but Joseph Jackson is sheriff, and Joshua Collett prosecuting attorney. Grand jury: Rev. Francis McCormick (foreman), Jacob Ulrey, John Warren, William Lindsey, Obed Denham, John Pollock, Jr., Moses Hicks, Samuel Jackson, John McConeley, Daniel Evans, John Prather, Henry Newkirk, and John Sargent. Witnesses sworn to go before the grand jury: Ann Williams, Patty Leeds, John Doughty, Adam Snider, James Blackwood, Nancy Durbin, Philip Durbin, and Hannah Ulrey. And now came the civil suit of Thomas Morris vs. Roger W. Waring for trespass and assault. Jury sworn, to wit: John Abrahams, John Wiley, Charles Stuart, George Kinney, Robert Dickey, Benjamin Cross, James Rounds, George Evans, John Trout, John Davis, Mathew Davidson, and Christian Husong. John Kain had been called on the jury, but plaintiff objected to him because he had formed an opin-

THE SCOTCH-IRISH IN YORK AND ADAMS COUNTIES

The following lists of names of early settlers are appended in the hope that they may be the means of assisting those who are in search of family records. It is to be regretted that the limited time afforded for the preparation of this paper has not permitted a more thorough search for early assessment lists and tax duplicates. However, the writer trusts that what is given may be of some value.

Chester Co., PA was bordered on the northeast by Montgomery Co with Bucks Co NE of that, on the southeast by Delaware Co and a semi-circular border of the State of Delaware, on the west by Lancaster Co with York Co west of that. York, Lanc., & Chester Cos. border MD on the south. Chester Co was an original co. and does have a Londonderry Twp. If the immigrants entered at the Port of Philadelphia, they would have gone slightly SE to get to Londonderry Twp. The KIRKPATRICKS & ROSEBURGHS were west of that in Lanc. & York Cos. respectively. EVANSES were prominent land holders, etc. in the southern part of Lanc. Co in Drumore & New Britain Twps. SAMUEL KIRKPATRICK was a single, freeman in Chester Co in 1765 - 1768 and John KIRKPATRICK owned land along the MD border, same co., same time. His dau. Eleanor mar. James EVANS, dau Margaret mar. Robt. EVANS.

Christine Gilliland sent me records from Red Oak Church years ago - you probably already have these: Manual of Pres. Ch., Ripley 1868, pub. by Sessions - EVANS, Jane, O(liver) P(erry), Anna, D.B., Jane K(irker), Mary Alice, Feb 22, 1866 - Eliza A. EVANS (note: Eliza Taylor m. Elias EVANS in Franklin Co., PA - same?)

Elders 1838 John D. " 1839 - D. B. EVANS

She asked the pastor of the Geotn Ch. about old records - " Geotn Ch. was sort of an outgrowth of Straight Creek. In 1809 when Straight Cr. built a new church on the other side of the creek, several families came to Red Oak." She also copied from Br. Co. Hist: " Trustees of Straight Cr. CH, Oct 1813 (bought) a sectiom of ground from Wall farm to use as a plot on which to erect a church. Trustees - Arch. Tweed, DANIEL EVANS, Henry Ralston." "First Trustees of Geotn. Ch. James Campbell, Garrett Snedaker, Duncan EVANS, Geo. Blair." Another time she copied more: " Into that portion of Br. Co. which is now Union Twp..... settlers....Presb. faith..... on Apr 1, 1798, living on Red Oak, Eagle & Straight Crs., asked Transylvania Presbytery to be taken in & known as Congregation of Bilboa. Red Oak organized 1798, Straight Cr. established 1803." " Records of Clermont Co - indenture bet. Walter Wall & trustees (above) Oct 15, 1813 - plot was about 1½ acres." From the copies of Deeds I have, all 3 EVANS bros. bought land on Straight, Eagle & White Oak Creeks.

from the concern, and the remaining partners conducted the business till 1856, when operations at this place ceased, the real estate was sold to different parties, and Rock-Furnace ceased to exist. Under the administrations of the Brookes many improvements were made, lands in the vicinity were purchased and improved, dwellings and store-houses built, the works enlarged, and many hands employed in coaling, mining, hauling ore, etc. All this stimulated other business, and the cessation of operations was regarded as a calamity to the township and surrounding country.

White Rock Forge was located near what is now White Rock Station and post-office, on the line of the Peachbottom Narrow-Gauge Railroad. The buildings were commenced in 1830 by Frank Park and James Sproule. Park withdrew from the firm, and James Sproule finished the work. The forge was managed by John Alexander and Mr. Irvin for seven years, then by Mr. Alexander alone for twenty years. The latter then engaged in farming, and the business of the forge passed into the hands of Vincent and James King, who conducted it four years. After this William Baker had charge of it two years, when business becoming dull the forge was allowed to stand idle. The iron used in this forge came from Colebrooke, and was manufactured into bar iron and saw-plates, the bar iron being hauled in wagons to Wilmington and Lancaster, and the saw-plates to Penningtonville, and shipped via the Pennsylvania Railroad to Philadelphia. It took three hundred tons of pig iron to supply the forge one year, this amount making about two hundred tons when manufactured. Two thousand cords of wood were used per year. Nine forgemen, together with a number of woodchoppers and colliers, were employed. The dam, in connection with the forge, covered forty acres of land. Jacob Handley was the first clerk at the forge. The other clerks were Moore Irvin, Vincent King, and James King. When the forge business ceased, Mr. Sproule sold the greater part of his land to Thomas Whitson, and the remaining portion, that on which the forge was built, to Frank Hobson. The latter sold to Alexander W. Morrison, who tore down the forge buildings, so that but few traces of them remain. This property is now owned by James King, of Little Britain township.

The property now owned and occupied by Levi Barnett, purchased by him in 1869, formerly belonged to the White Rock Forge Company, and the house in which he lives was the forge company's "Mansion House," and on the west side of it, in what is now a part of the door-yard, stood the company's store and warehouse. Could the old spot of ground talk, many pleasing incidents might be related.

Pioneer Mills.—Colerain is amply supplied with water-power. The early inhabitants seem to have appreciated this advantage, as quite a number of mills were in operation at a very early date. Among these was Samuel Reynolds' saw-mill, built about 1790, and situated on west branch of Octorara, about three hundred yards north of where White Rock Forge afterwards stood. The mill was in operation until about 1830.

A saw-mill and nail-factory, situated near the confluence of the two branches of Octorara Creek, was operated by Phineas Ash. The date of erection is not exactly known, but was a few years prior to 1820.

Morrison and Beyers' mills were situated on the main branch of Octorara. The grain raised in those days found a market in Newport, carried thence on horseback, there being no road-wagons used then. Instead of wagons, what were known as "sled-cars" were used for conveying articles from one point on the farm to another. No fences were built, deep ditches being dug to mark the line between farms.

Military.—The early settlers in and before 1756 were Robert Anderson, farmer; Joshua Anderson, farmer; Joshua Anderson, Jr., farmer; and Samuel Anderson, Esq., who in 1756 raised a company of associators during the French and Indian war. Joshua Anderson was his lieutenant, and John Barkley was ensign. The company was composed entirely of citizens of Colerain and vicinity:

Hugh Barkley, farmer.
William Burnside, farmer.
David Campbell, farmer.
Joseph Crawford, weaver.
Hugh Cummins, farmer.
Thomas Cross, weaver.

It will be seen from this list that up to the year 1758 a clean list of Scotch-Irish were settled in Colerain. A few years later the Whitesides came into the township. At the commencement of the Revolution, Thomas Whiteside was appointed one of the justices for Colerain and Bart townships, and re-

[1] The latter continued to be a justice from about the year 1755 on through the Revolution, and was one of the justices of the Court of Common Pleas. He was a very prominent person, and was an ardent patriot. He administered the oath of allegiance to those who resided in Colerain and vicinity.

York Co, Pa Church Records of the 18 Century Vol 3
by Marlene S Bates & F Edward Wright

PRESBYTERIANS

The Scots-Irish settled mostly in the southeastern part of the county. Here were established the churches of Chanceford (before 1760), Guinston, and Slate Ridge (ca. 1747). Also founded in the 18th century were the First Presbyterian Church of York, Dillsburg (ca. 1737) and Centre (ca. 1780).[22] Of the Presbyterian churches of York County only the records of Guinston have survived from the 18th Century.

GUINSTON (MUDDY CREEK) UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Chanceford Township. A transcription of the baptisms are held by the York County Historical Society for the period 1772-1846 and the marriages for the period, 1772-1806. A statement on this copy reads, "The original book containing these records is now in the possession of Mr. J. F. Maughlin of Guinston Church..."

REVEREND JOHN CUTHBERTSON'S DIARY, 1751-1791. He was a Reformed Presbyterian minister in Adams, York and Lancaster Counties. Most Presbyterians of this region belonged to the main branch of colonial Presbyterianism as represented by the Synod of Philadelphia, but there was also a congregation of Reformed Presbyterians, or Covenanters. Rev. Dr. John Cuthbertson was sent from Scotland to minister to Scottish Covenanters in America in 1751, the first Reformed Presbyterian Missionary to come to America. He kept a diary from the date he arrived in America up to 1791. From his entries we know that he married about 600 persons and baptized over 1800 children. Register of Marriages and Baptisms performed by Rev. John Cuthbertson, 1751-1791, by S. Hellen Fields, was originally printed in 1934, reprinted 1983 by Genealogical Publishing Company, Baltimore. Only those births, deaths and marriages which were performed in York County are printed here.

Noah E. Evans was a farmer and stock raiser in P.O. Eureka, Illinois. He was born in Brown County, Ohio in 1822 where his parents may have been some of the first settlers of Brown County. It was settled in 1820. Noah and his family resided there until March 1866, when he brought them to Woodford County, IL. He and his wife Amanda had eight children and they lived on a farm of 160 acres in section 34 of Metamora Township. The land was valued at $9600. I found the land they lived on, however, the house is no longer standing. They moved to Hammond, Piatt Cnty.,IL between 1880 and 1900, as they were listed as residents in Hammond during the 1900 census. Also living in Piatt County. was their daughter Olive. I assume they moved there after giving up farming in Woodford Cnty.

I found several of the remaining Evans Family in Piatt County in 1991. They invited me to their family reunion to meet the faimlies who attended. There were about 35 people in atendance and I had a chance to talk to a cousin Donald Evans, who was the oldest Evans attending. He was 87 years old. He remembered seeing his Great-Great Grandfather (Noah) when he was a young boy, but could not recall any stories about earlier generations.

In another article in January, 1917, it stated that George Evans was in town to visit his Father who was suffering from heart problems.

John W. Evans was listed in the 1900 U.S.Census as living with his family in Knox County, Illinois in the town of Altona, Walnut Grove Township. It listed his wife Katherine L., Louie E., Susie, Ellen, and June(?). I think June was really Jeannette. I found a short article in the Eureka Republican on September 15, 1903 that stated that John W. Evans of Metamora is dangerously ill.

John’s obituary in the Woodford County Herold stated that his full name was John William Evans and died at the age of 50 years, 11 months, 20 days. He had been suffering for a spinal disease for about two years and it was the cause of his death. After his marriage to Catherine Sharick on February 24, 1881, they lived in Woodford County until February 1882 when they moved to Moultrie County, Illinois. In October 1885 they moved back to Woodford County and resided there until 1893 when they moved to Knox County, Illinois. In 1901 they moved back to their home in Woodford County where he spent his remaining days. His mother's obituary stated that he was a popular tonsorial artist (a barber) in Metamora.

After his discharge from the Army, he went to work at the Galesburg Mallable Foundry to begin his apprentice as a Pattern Maker. They lived in an apartment at her parents home until 1964 when he completed his apprenticeship and then moved to Chillicothe to raise their four children (3 at the time of the move). He worked at a pattern shop in Peoria and eventually started his own business in Pioneer Park on the north edge of Peoria. Becoming somewhat tired of his partnership in the business, he moved to Fairhope, Alabama in 1979 to work and eventually starting his own business again. Don decided to move back to Illinois in the mid 1980's and settled in Decatur, Illinois. He is known for his expertise in wood and metal pattern making abilities and currently (1992) works for a jobbing shop in Decatur.

Terry Davis was born on January 23, 1945 at St.Mary's Hospital in Galesburg, Illinois to Cecil Eldon and Georgia Elizabeth Mourning Davis. He lived in Galesburg and attended the L.T.Stone and Westin grade schools there until January 23, 1956 when his family moved to Chillicothe, Illinois. There he attended the Chillicothe Grade and High Schools and graduated in 1963. He worked as a car inspector at the Santa Fe railroad during the summer of 1963 and then applied for factory work at Caterpillar Tractor. He started work there at the East Peoria plant on October 7, 1963 working as a heat treat helper and eventually working up to a promotion to a heat treat operator.

He married Carolyn Louise Forney on March 6, 1965 at the Plymouth Congregational Church in Chillicothe. Carolyn was working as a bookkeeper at the United Way office in Peoria at the time of their marriage. They started their family within 2 years with the birth of their son Bruce Allen on April 24, 1967 and their daughter Connie Sue on August 1, 1969.

He transferred into the Factory Accounting department in 1969 and decided to continue his education at the Illinois Central College taking classes in Accounting and Data Processing. He transferred to Caterpillar's Mossville plant in 1974 to help in start up of the new Engine Plant. This move provided him with more experience and eventually he moved into supervisory positions in Production Accounting and Data Processing. With his experienced and schooling in data processing, he was promoted to a Computer Network Anaylst in 1987.

He and his wife still live in Chillicothe with his interest being in personal computers, fishing and genealogy. He has been researching the DAVIS history since 1980 and has compiled 8 generataions of data on the family.

I found Amanda Evan's death certificate in the Piatt County Courthouse, however, it did not contain any helpful information in my research. The certificate was #1463 in book #1, page 113 for 1903.
Amanda's obituary in the March 13, 1903 issue of the Piatt County Republican stated that she married Noah on October 23, 1843. Her obituary in Woodford County, Illinois and the self profile in the History of Woodford County (1878) stated that they were married on October 23, 1842. The Woodford County issue stated that she died at the age of 78 years, 2 months, and 9 days, and that she had suffered from catarrh of her stomach for about 6 months. She and Noah had lived in Woodford County for 22 years until they moved near Lake City in Moultrie County in 1888. They later moved near Hammond, Illinois. At the time of her death, her son Henry lived in Pleasant Mount, Missouri, John lived in Metamora, Samuel W., Lewis, and daughter Olive lived in Hammond, and Mary lived in Cerro Gurdo. Daughter Elizabeth and son Joseph had preceded her in death.

John W. Evans was listed in the 1900 U.S.Census as living with his family in Knox County, Illinois in the town of Altona, Walnut Grove Township. It listed his wife Katherine L., Louie E., Susie, Ellen, and June(?). I think June was really Jeannette. I found a short article in the Eureka Republican on September 15, 1903 that stated that John W. Evans of Metamora is dangerously ill.

John's obituary in the Woodford County Herold stated that his full name was John William Evans and died at the age of 50 years, 11 months, 20 days. He had been suffering for a spinal disease for about two years and it was the cause of his death. After his marriage to Catherine Sharick on February 24, 1881, they lived in Woodford County until February 1882 when they moved to Moultrie County, Illinois. In October 1885 they moved back to Woodford County and resided there until 1893 when they moved to Knox County, Illinois. In 1901 they moved back to their home in Woodford County where he spent his remaining days. His mother's obituary stated that he was a popular tonsorial artist (a barber) in Metamora.

Terry Davis was born on January 23, 1945 at St.Mary's Hospital in Galesburg, Illinois to Cecil Eldon and Georgia Elizabeth Mourning Davis. He lived in Galesburg and attended the L.T.Stone and Westin grade schools there until January 23, 1956 when his family moved to Chillicothe, Illinois. There he attended the Chillicothe Grade and High Schools and graduated in 1963. He worked as a car inspector at the Santa Fe railroad during the summer of 1963 and then applied for factory work at Caterpillar Tractor. He started work there at the East Peoria plant on October 7, 1963 working as a heat treat helper and eventually working up to a promotion to a heat treat operator.

He married Carolyn Louise Forney on March 6, 1965 at the Plymouth Congregational Church in Chillicothe. Carolyn was working as a bookkeeper at the United Way office in Peoria at the time of their marriage. They started their family within 2 years with the birth of their son Bruce Allen on April 24, 1967 and their daughter Connie Sue on August 1, 1969.

He transferred into the Factory Accounting department in 1969 and decided to continue his education at the Illinois Central College taking classes in Accounting and Data Processing. He transferred to Caterpillar's Mossville plant in 1974 to help in start up of the new Engine Plant. This move provided him with more experience and eventually he moved into supervisory positions in Production Accounting and Data Processing. With his experienced and schooling in data processing, he was promoted to a Computer Network Anaylst in 1987.

He and his wife still live in Chillicothe with his interest being in personal computers, fishing and genealogy. He has been researching the DAVIS history since 1980 and has compiled 8 generataions of data on the family.

From a letter written to me on November 1, 1993 by Robin Ruth Brunner, 5554 Arrowhead Drive, Greenfield, IN 46140

When we left the Mason County Museum in Maysville, KY, we took a side trip to try to find a cemetery and had better luck than expected. My mother's directions were hazy as it had been some thirty years since she had last seen it. On the gate it has Lenoxburg Cemetery, has a fairly new clapboard church across the road and the church is surrounded by an extension of the cemetery. Mother remembered it as "Pine Grove Cemetery" while it is listed in the museum's records as "Odd Fellows Cemetery." Here a number of my mother's anscestors and relatives are buried including Etha Jane Evans Dixon, Christina Ellis and Welford Evan's daughter. It's a pretty place, right on the edge of Lenoxburg, KY.

Noah E. Evans was a farmer and stock raiser in P.O. Eureka, Illinois. He was born in Brown County, Ohio in 1822 where his parents may have been some of the first settlers of Brown County. It was settled in 1820. Noah and his family resided there until March 1866, when he brought them to Woodford County, IL. He and his wife Amanda had eight children and they lived on a farm of 160 acres in section 34 of Metamora Township. The land was valued at $9600. I found the land they lived on, however, the house is no longer standing. They moved to Hammond, Piatt Cnty.,IL between 1880 and 1900, as they were listed as residents in Hammond during the 1900 census. Also living in Piatt County. was their daughter Olive. I assume they moved there after giving up farming in Woodford Cnty.

I found several of the remaining Evans Family in Piatt County in 1991. They invited me to their family reunion to meet the faimlies who attended. There were about 35 people in atendance and I had a chance to talk to a cousin

Donald Evans, who was the oldest Evans attending. He was 87 years old. He remembered seeing his Great-Great Grandfather (Noah) when he was a young boy, but could not recall any stories about earlier generations.

John W. Evans was listed in the 1900 U.S.Census as living with his family in Knox County, Illinois in the town of Altona, Walnut Grove Township. It listed his wife Katherine L., Louie E., Susie, Ellen, and June(?). I think June was really Jeannette. I found a short article in the Eureka Republican on September 15, 1903 that stated that John W. Evans of Metamora is dangerously ill.

John's obituary in the Woodford County Herold stated that his full name was John William Evans and died at the age of 50 years, 11 months, 20 days. He had been suffering for a spinal disease for about two years and it was the cause of his death. After his marriage to Catherine Sharick on February 24, 1881, they lived in Woodford County until February 1882 when they moved to Moultrie County, Illinois. In October 1885 they moved back to Woodford County and resided there until 1893 when they moved to Knox County, Illinois. In 1901 they moved back to their home in Woodford County where he spent his remaining days. His mother's obituary stated that he was a popular tonsorial artist (a barber) in Metamora.

After his discharge from the Army, he went to work at the Galesburg Mallable Foundry to begin his apprentice as a Pattern Maker. They lived in an apartment at her parents home until 1964 when he completed his apprenticeship and then moved to Chillicothe to raise their four children (3 at the time of the move). He worked at a pattern shop in Peoria and eventually started his own business in Pioneer Park on the north edge of Peoria. Becoming somewhat tired of his partnership in the business, he moved to Fairhope, Alabama in 1979 to work and eventually starting his own business again. Don decided to move back to Illinois in the mid 1980's and settled in Decatur, Illinois. He is known for his expertise in wood and metal pattern making abilities and currently (1992) works for a jobbing shop in Decatur.

Terry Davis was born on January 23, 1945 at St.Mary's Hospital in Galesburg, Illinois to Cecil Eldon and Georgia Elizabeth Mourning Davis. He lived in Galesburg and attended the L.T.Stone and Westin grade schools there until January 23, 1956 when his family moved to Chillicothe, Illinois. There he attended the Chillicothe Grade and High Schools and graduated in 1963. He worked as a car inspector at the Santa Fe railroad during the summer of 1963 and then applied for factory work at Caterpillar Tractor. He started work there at the East Peoria plant on October 7, 1963 working as a heat treat helper and eventually working up to a promotion to a heat treat operator.

He married Carolyn Louise Forney on March 6, 1965 at the Plymouth Congregational Church in Chillicothe. Carolyn was working as a bookkeeper at the United Way office in Peoria at the time of their marriage. They started their family within 2 years with the birth of their son Bruce Allen on April 24, 1967 and their daughter Connie Sue on August 1, 1969.

He transferred into the Factory Accounting department in 1969 and decided to continue his education at the Illinois Central College taking classes in Accounting and Data Processing. He transferred to Caterpillar's Mossville plant in 1974 to help in start up of the new Engine Plant. This move provided him with more experience and eventually he moved into supervisory positions in Production Accounting and Data Processing. With his experienced and schooling in data processing, he was promoted to a Computer Network Anaylst in 1987.

He and his wife still live in Chillicothe with his interest being in personal computers, fishing and genealogy. He has been researching the DAVIS history since 1980 and has compiled 8 generataions of data on the family.

Dear Linda:

Thanks for responding to my request in the Brown County newsletter. I feel like I've known you for a long time, even though we have never met. I have received a lot of your research work on the EVANS, ELLIS and MEFFORD families from Jan Stevenson of Belfair, Washington. If I recall correctly, she had communicated with you with her ELLIS research. I also met Pat Donaldson when I visited Georgetown a couple of years ago. She mentioned your name and said you had researched the EVANS family. She also mentioned that you had moved to Decatur.

Now some news for you. Noah Ellis Evans, son of John Duncan Evans, moved to Eureka, Illinois in 1866 where he bought a farm. Eureka is located about 25 miles east of Chillicothe. He later moved his family to Hammond, Illinois in Piatt County. As you probably know, this is just 30 miles east of Decatur. They have several family cemetery plots at the Turner Cemetery, located about 3 miles south of Hammond. Many of the Evans family still reside around the area. They have a family reunion at LaPlace, IL in July every year and my brother and I attended it 2 years ago. This was shortly after I located the family there. My brother Don also lives in Decatur, therefore it made it easy for us both to attend. There were 2 older grandsons of Noah Ellis Evans there and they remembered some things about him. They are both still living, Donald (age 90) in Sullivan and John (age 84) lives near Decatur I think. They are all wonderful people to know. I met Donald and his wife at the Turner Cemetery last May when I was putting flowers on Noah and Amanda's grave for Memorial Day. They invited me to their home in Sullivan to visit anytime I was in the area. I planned to attend the reunion again last year, however, we had our 30th school reunion the same weekend.

I am sending you a descendants list of the Evans, Mefford and Ellis familles. As I said, most of the information is from Jan, but I have updated a lot of the EVANS family since Noah and Amanda. Please compare it with what you have. I would be interested in anything else that you can provide. I have tried to prove the EVANS family as first settlers of Brown County, but have had problems finding the correct documentation. Noah was born in 1822 in Brown County, per our research. I can't help but think that his family was there in 1820 when Brown County was founded.

Well must close for now. Hopefully we can meet someday and I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Terry

P.S. Chillicothe is 100 northwest of Decatur and 20 mile north of Peoria. We are almost neighbors!!!!

County for a quarter of a century. In 1910 he was able to retire with a financial competence, and removed to Champaign. In 1914 he built a handsome brick residence at 714 West Green Street in Champaign, and has occupied that modern home since November of that year. Mr. Burwash has been a Republican since casting his first vote, and he and his wife are active members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Mr. Burwash was married November 15, 1885, to Miss Margaret McCullough, a native of Champaign County and member of an old and prominent family of this section. Her parents, Alexander W. and Elizabeth H. (Seylar) McCullough, were both born in Pennsylvania. Her father came to Champaign County in 1854, locating on a farm south of Urbana, and lived there until his death in January, 1899. Mrs. Burwash's widowed mother died July 19, 1909. In their family were nine children: James S. and Sarah J., deceased; Adeline C., wife of W. N. Ramey, of Missouri; Annie Elizabeth, widow of John Bond, of Tolono; Frank F., living in California; Mrs. Margaret Burwash; Albert C., of Urbana Township; Benjamin T., deceased; John, a resident of Urbana Township. Mr. and Mrs. Burwash have no children.

AUGUSTUS M. EVANS. In the administration of the affairs of county government the duties of few offices are more important than are those of the sheriff. To occupy this position acceptably the incumbent must be a man of unquestioned courage, for even in the most law-abiding communities he is frequently called upon to face situations demanding quick, decisive and fearless action; he must possess no inconsiderate amount of detective ability, to be used in the solving of perplexing cases, and he must, withal, be a man of executive ability and force of character in order to inspire respect in his community. Champaign County is fortunate in the possession of a capable sheriff who measures up to the standard set above. Augustus M. Evans has held the shrievalty since 1914, and prior to that time had gained much experience in the office of deputy. He is a former newspaper man and well known to the people of the county who have watched his good official work with satisfaction.

Augustus M. Evans was born in Brown County, Ohio, May 22, 1867, and is a son of George M. and Elizabeth A. (Park) Evans, both of whom were born in the Buckeye State. The family came to Champaign County about the year 1868, settling first at Tolono, where George M. Evans followed the trade of carpenter. In 1882 he removed with his family to Champaign, and in that city continued to follow his chosen vocation up to the time of his death. Mrs. Evans also passed away in that city. There were three children in the family, namely: Charles G., who is now deceased; William A.; and Augustus M.

Augustus M. Evans was an infant when brought to Illinois by his parents, and the greater part of his schooling was secured in the public schools of Tolono. His real education came, however, after he had located at Champaign. There, in 1882, when he was fifteen years of age, he joined the force of the Champaign Gazette, and during the next twenty-nine years worked his way through various positions, seeing all sides of newspaper life and making a large acquaintance throughout the country. His experience in this connection brought him into contact with all kinds and manner of people and secured for him a wealth of information that has proved of the greatest value to him in his official work. Mr. Evans' connection with the Gazette office was severed in 1911, when he was appointed deputy sheriff. He remained in that capacity until 1914, when he became the candidate for the office of sheriff on the Republican ticket, and was successful at the polls, receiving a handsome majority. He has

he's from all the right places so discharged the duties of his office well, and during his administration Champaign County has been singularly free from the presence of criminals and evil-doers.

On November 12, 1890, Sheriff Evans was united in marriage with Miss Kate Sharp, who was born in Champaign County, and to this union there has been born one son: Harry S., who is serving in the capacity of deputy sheriff. Sheriff Evans is a stanch Republican and has for a long period been an active worker in the ranks of his party. He believes in the benefit and enjoyment to be derived from membership in fraternal orders, and is at this time affiliated with the local lodges of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Modern Woodmen of America, in all of which he has numerous friends.

J. E. FULLER. The Fuller home is a mile and three-quarters southeast of Ludlow, in section 8 of Harwood Township. It is a home of comforts and superior improvements, and is the domicile of people whose character and activities tend to raise the general standard of community life in Champaign County.

Mr. Fuller was born in Michigan, son of Dexter and Elizabeth Ann (Curtis) Fuller. His parents were born in Massachusetts, moved from there to Ohio and finally to Michigan. J. K. Fuller was educated in Michigan schools, completing his training in a seminary at Spring Arbor in that state, where he graduated in 1884. Following that for a number of years he was a successful teacher both in Michigan and also in Champaign County.

Mr. Fuller married Miss Jennie Pearson. She was born in Mason County, Illinois, a daughter of Robert and Mary (Fletcher) Pearson, both of whom are natives of England, but came to this country when still single. Mrs. Fuller was the second in a family of five children. She attended the district schools, the college at Paxton, Illinois, and was married at the age of twenty-four.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Fuller located at their present home place, and that has been their continuous residence ever since. Here they have 160 acres and the passing years have witnessed many improvements in their surroundings and have also endeared the home to them by many happy associations.

To their marriage were born five children. One died in infancy and the others are named Nanny, Robitine, Horace and Fred. To fit these children for the responsible duties of life Mr. and Mrs. Fuller sent them to the local district school, where all of them finished the eighth grade. The daughter Nanny became a student in the Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, where she took the liberal arts course, specializing in English. The girls have also had piano instruction, and music is one of the features of the Fuller home. The daughter Robitine attended the high school at Paxton, where she graduated in 1915. She is now the capable helper to her mother in the home. Nanny taught her first school in Harwood Center during 1911-12, had the Martin school for two years, and then one year in the old home school district, the Gallagher school. Miss Nanny has been superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school at Ludlow. The son Fred is active in the work of the home farm. The other son, Horace, now lives in North Dakota, near Arthur. He married Sarah Van Schoyck of Ludlow. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller have always endeavored to carry out the principles of her father who taught his children strict loyalty to the flag and country which gave them protection. In church affairs the Fuller family are active in the Methodist Episcopal

IRST DEPUTY COMMISSIONER.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
BUREAU OF PENSIONS,
WASHINGTON, March 1, 1912.

Charles L. Thompsom, Esq.
Postmaster, Georgetown, Ohio.

Sir:

In response to your letter dated the 23" and received the 27" ultimo, you are advised that William Printy, Sur. File No. 40,301, was allowed pension on his application executed May 13, 1818, at which time he was a resident of Mason County, Kentucky, and seventy-one years of age.

He stated that he enlisted at Trenton, New Jersey, in 1775, for one year under Captain Brearley, Colonel Maxwell's 2d New Jersey regiment, was in the battle of Three Rivers and on the Plains of Quebec, and on his return from Canada re-enlisted in same company and regiment commanded by Captains Yard and Phillips and Colonel Shreve; he was in the battles of Brandywine and Short Hills, and was discharged at Pumpton Huts, New Jersey; having served four years.

In 1821 he stated that his wife (name and age not given), daughter Sarah 24 years of age, and himself, lived in Brown County, Ohio, with his son Israel who was 27 or 28 years of age.

In the papers in claim R. File 3473, it is stated that Daniel Feagan was a native of Loudoun County, Virginia, where he entered the service in the latter part of 1776, as First Lieut. of Virginia troops, and was in the battle of Brandywine, after which he was commissioned Captain, and served until the close of the War in 1783.

He married in Loudoun County, Virginia, February 3,1763 Violet (or Letty) Combes daughter of Joe Combes; soldier died in July, 1815, in Brown County, Ohio, and his widow Violet died February 14, 1842, in Fayette County, Ohio. Born 1740

Their children were: Hethy who married Absalom Craig, Fielden Feagan, Daniel Feagan, Elizabeth Feagan, Jane Feagan, Susannah Thompson, Frances Polk, Nancy Feagan, Edward Feagan, Violet Arnold, and Willis Feagan.

On December 19, 1853, soldier's son Edward Feagan aged sixty-eight years and resident of Fayette County, Ohio, applied for pension which might have been due on account of the services of his father, for the benefit of his surviving children Susannah Thompson, Violet Arnold, Willis Feagan and himself, but the claim was rejected on the ground of insufficient proof of service, required by the pension law.

Very respectfully,

L. Stillwell

First Deputy Commissioner.

Mr. McElroy was one of the few remaining veterans of the G. A. R. in [illegible] having enlisted in the service at the early age of 18 years, being a member of Co. B, 34th Reg. and Co. [illegible] Reg. O. V. I., during which [illegible] active service in many [illegible] being wounded and left on the field for dead on one occasion. He was honorably discharged on July [illegible], 1865, at Wheeling, W. Va.

On December 6, 1[illegible]7, he was united in marriage to Caroline Waterfield Gardner, to which union six children were born, [illegible] number one son [illegible] in infancy, there being four sons [illegible] daughter surviving him, viz: [illegible] James and Charlie, of Georgetown, [illegible] William, of Middletown, and Mrs. Estella Cochran, of near Georgetown. Beside these, he leaves six grandchildren and one great grandchild, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn his [illegible]. His wife preceded him in [illegible].

Mr. McElroy was a member of the [illegible] fraternity, being one of the [illegible] in this community, having long passed the fifty-year mark. As we are called to assemble from time to time in these solemn exercises which mark the passing of these [illegible] of the G. A. R. who have experienced so much of life with it's [illegible] experiences we can but meditate upon the words of the poet who said:

We are going down the valley, one by one,
With our faces toward the setting of the sun;
Down the valley where the mournful

We are going down the valley, one by one,

WILLIAM MATTHEW EVANS.

The stars are dimly shining
Upon another lonely grave,
Where sleepeth without waking
One we loved but could not save.

William M. Evans, son of William Jackson and Louisa Lamb Evans, was born near Georgetown, Ohio, August 4, 1851, and departed this life after a short illness January 19, 1928, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. Lee Hanselman, in Mt. Auburn, Cincinnati, Ohio, where he had gone earlier in the winter. He had reached the age of 76 years, 5 months and 15 days.

He was of a family of ten children all of these having passed to the Great Beyond except three—two sisters, Mrs. Mary Laycock of Claude, Texas, and Mrs. Flora Russell, of Cincinnati, O., and the youngest brother, Henry D. Evans, who resides in New Mexico.

On December 9, 1881, he was united in marriage to Malinda J. Miller, elder daughter of Barton and Elizabeth Hicks Miller. This companion preceded him in death 11 years ago.

One daughter, Cora Lou, came to this home, and remains to mourn the loss of this father. Also, in the daughter's home is the son-in-law, H. Lee Hanselman and one grandson, William Lee Hanselman, aged 11 years, of whom the grandfather was very proud.

He came of a highly respected family of the older residents, having spent his entire life in and near Georgetown. Until a few years ago he resided on a farm south of town, but failing health caused him to purchase property in town and retire.

His health has been failing for the past seven years, but especially more noticeable in the last few months.

Funeral services were conducted at the Spencer Funeral Home by Rev. Vernon P. Martin with burial in the family lot in Confidence cemetery.

Somewhere back of the sunset,
Where loveliness never dies,
He dwells in a land of glory
Near God and the blue of the skies.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our appreciation to all those who extended kindnesses during the loss of father and grandfather, William M. Evans. We wish to make special mention of the services of Rev. Vernon P. Martin, the donors of floral tributes, the pall bearers and Mr. Frank Spencer for his efficiency in all funeral arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Hanselman and Will Lee.

ETTA BLANCHE (PARK) BROWN

She was one of a family of 5 children there being two sisters and two brothers, one of which died in early childhood and one sister, Mrs. Carrie Jones, preceded her in death on January 9, 1923, leaving one brother, Mr. Frank Park, of Bethel, Ohio and one sister, Mrs. Estella Jones, of California also a half brother and sister, John Derrough, of Bethel, and Mrs. Will Morgan, of Hebron, Indiana, to whom she was very much attached.

month; he learned the cooper's trade at Cincinnati, and followed it six years. In 1846, he married Elizabeth Shields, daughter of William and Mary (Ramey) Shields. William Shields was a native of Kentucky, and, from 1843 to 1847, was Sheriff of Brown County; his wife, Mary, was a native of Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Laycock have four children living—John W., married and farming in Pleasant Township; Mary K., wife of C. C. Jones, of Clark Township; L. C., a physician, practicing in Highland County, and E. F., at home. All are doing well, and have profited by the habits of industry and strict integrity, which they acquired at home. All the members of this family have united with the Disciples' Church, of which the parents have been members, the father for nearly thirty years and the mother for a longer period. Our subject is, at present, the Superintendent of the Sabbath School of the Disciples' Church at Georgetown, which is in a prosperous and flourishing condition.

ROBERT SCOTT LAYCOCK (deceased) was born in Brown County April 23, 1824, the son of Peter and Sarah (Woostrel) Laycock, both natives of Ohio, and both of English descent. His life was spent in farming, and in his youth he received a good education in the common schools. In 1849, he was joined in marriage with Caroline Waterfield, who was born in Lewis Township in 1827. They had two children—Sarah Ellen (the wife of Columbus Phillips) and Peter W. (a farmer of this township). Mr. Laycock was a member of the M. E. Church, a Democrat, a successful farmer, owning 323 acres of land, and died in 1870. His widow is a member of the Christian Church, and resides in this township. Her farm is operated by Joseph F. Rubenaker, a native of Germany, who, in 1881, married Anna Florence Hubbard, Mrs. Laycock's adopted daughter.

P. W. LAYCOCK, farmer, P. O. Georgetown, was born in Brown County December 20, 1851. He is the son of Robert Scott Laycock, and attended the district schools of his neighborhood. He adopted the occupation of his father—farming—and has applied himself to it with energy and enterprise. His farm consists of 127 acres. In politics, he affiliates with the Democracy. His life companion is Mary Evans, daughter of W. J. Evans, of this county. They were married in 1876, and have ~~three~~ 10 children—William Scott, Lottie Florence and Wilber Austin. Mrs. Laycock is a member of the Presbyterian Church.

LEARNER B. LEEDS, editor and printer by trade, was born in Clermont County, Ohio, July 20, 1817, of mixed English and German ancestry, his father's side coming from Leeds, in England, and his mother's side coming from Germany. He was born on a farm, and lived a farmer's life till about seventeen years of age. He knew not what ease or idleness or plenty signified, but was inured to poverty and toil. His means of education were a country school, and two or three months a year thereat. Most of his education was obtained at home of nights and at leisure hours, and his schoolmaster was his own will and determination to acquire an education. In the fall of 1834, he was apprenticed to the printing business to the late Gov. Samuel Medary, who then published the Ohio Sun at Batavia. During his apprenticeship, he served as assistant editor, and part of the time, when Mr. Medary was absent at Columbus as Senator, he had the sole control of the paper, both mechanical and editorial. After completing his apprenticeship, he went to Cincinnati, and first worked in the Daily Gazette office when the late Charles Hammond was its editor; and afterward he worked in the Philanthropist office, edited by the late Gamaliel G. Bailey. In 1840, he purchased the Ohio Sun printing office, and soon after changed its name to Clermont Sun, which name it still bears. He continued its editor and publisher, with a brief interregnum, until 1864, when he sold out to the late Hon. H. V. Kerr. While living in Batavia, he was frequently elected to local offices, such as the School Board, Town Council, etc., and twice as County Recorder, serving as such for six years. His efforts for his party and political friends have no bounds. While he stood at the editorial helm the Democratic party succeeded uniformly, and was only beaten when a political revolution swept over the country, such as in 1854–55, when Know-Nothingism succeeded by 1700 in the county, and the war demoralized parties in 1861. In 1864, having sold the Sun, he purchased the Southern Ohio Argus at Georgetown, Ohio, of Mr. John Lamb, the oldest native citizen of this county and a man universally loved and respected, died on Thursday, December 26th at noon at the advanced age of 88. He was born November 12, 1790 and spent his entire live in Mason County. He learned the saddler's trade early in life, but for the past sixty years he followed farming, from which he acquired a comfortable fortune. In the War of 1812 he volunteered as a private in Capt. Belt's Company, Pogue's Regiment, and was in service six months and 22 days.

Death of John Lamb

The remains of this old and valued citizen were interred at the family burial ground on Saturday morning at 11:00 A.M. Mr. Lamb leaves five children, one daughter being the wife of Hon. E. Whitaker. One son served in the Confederate Army and lost his life in defense of that cause.

LAMB.—Died at his residence in Mason county, on Thursday, the 26th day of December, 1878, Mr. John Lamb, in the eighty-ninth year of his age.

Eagle Jan 8, 1879

There were traits of character about this old gentleman, and circumstances and family relations belonging to him, which make it due both to his memory and to the community in which his long life was spent, that something more should be said of him than what is contained in the few lines which form the caption of this sketch. We have accordingly learned what we could in the short time since his death, concerning him, and will endeavor to put together such facts as we have gathered.

The families to which he belonged, on the side of each of his parents, were Marylanders. His father, Wm. Lamb, belonged to a Quaker family of Frederick county in that State. His mother's maiden name was Sarah Wood. They were married in Maryland and most of their children were born there. Their first removal only brought them as far as Redstone in Brooke county, Va. There the old gentleman purchased a farm and resided for a short time. The very same place was afterward purchased by Alexander Campbell and on it is located Bethany College. The next move was to Mason county, Kentucky, in the year 1785 There were three sons in the family,—Basil, Pierce and John; and four daughters: Annie, Mary, Rachel and Betsey.

Mr. John Lamb was the youngest of the children and he and one daughter were natives of Mason county. His birthday was the 12th of November, 1790. His father had purchased a piece of land, the most of which we understand is now embraced in the place owned by Needham Parry. On this place he built an old fashioned Kentucky "hewed log" house, and here was Mr. John Lamb's birth-place. No trace of it, even in the shape of a foundation stone, we believe remains. Mason county, it will be remembered, when it was formed by the Legislature of Virginia, included something like one fourth of all the territory now comprising the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and old Mr. William Lamb was chosen an early sheriff of this county under the original constitution of our State. At that day, there was hardly a bridge in his bailiwick, or a path through its forests; and it strikes one, if he was not a most active and energetic officer, that many a writ for an enterprising debtor, must have been returned in the learned style of the old sheriffs, non est inventus. His son Pierce, we are informed, and a brother by the same name, were two of his deputies. The old gentleman lived on the place where he settled in Mason County to the time of his death.

In the same neighborhood there was a family of early settlers by the name of Wood, who were relatives of the Lambs. Dan'l and Harry Wood were cousins of Mr. Lamb, and cousins also of our old neighbor, Thomas Daulton. His mother's sister, Kitty Fristoe, married a Wood, and another sister of Mrs. Daulton was the wife of old Parson, William Grinstead, a Baptist preacher in Maysville in the early time. The Grinsteads at Lexington belong to the same family. The Lambs were also connected in some way with the family of Stevensons from which divers men of talents and influence have sprung. Col. Thos. B. Stevenson and Mr. John Lamb were kinsmen.

The family was without wealth in any of its branches, but was made up, we believe, throughout, of persons of integrity and fortitude; and it was in these circumstances and with these surroundings, that Mr. John Lamb began the long life which is just ended. Doubtless, after obtaining such education as could be had, there was the usual anxiety on his part and on the part of his family as to what he was to do. The choice was the trade of a saddler and he went to Georgetown and learned that trade with Job Stevenson, who was his relative. After learning his trade he worked for a time as a journeyman in Flemingsburg and there volunteered in the company of Captain Dennis Belt, as a soldier in the "late war" against the British. He was in no battle and his service was a short one, though he had the courage to have made a first rate soldier.

After his return, the question seems to have recurred in his case, as it does in so many cases of the the young, what he was now to do in his somewhat changed circumstances. This time the determination was to go back to his home and live with his parents, actuated perhaps mainly by affection for them and a desire to assist them along the downhill part of their journey. But there comes next in his life an event, which may indicate that other feelings, perhaps, contributed to this fondness for that neighborhood.

Just across the North Fork, only a mile or two distant, there had settled on the farm now owned by B. F. Clift, a family from Virginia by the name of Porter. Mrs. Porter was the aunt of the famous "Extra Billy Smith" and her house-full of boys and girls made an interesting and attractive home. One of her sons was Thomas Porter, who married a daughter of Squire Harry Bruce, of Fleming county, and who was long a leading and influential citizen of that county. Her other sons were Rowley or Raleigh and John Porter, both men of respectability and standing. There were a number of daughters in this family. One married Charles Bell. Nancy was the wife of Samuel Pepper. Betsey first married Mr. Charles Dobyns and was the mother of John P. and Luther Dobyns and of Mrs. John L. Kirk and Mrs. Thomas Larew and Mrs. James Kennan. After the death of Mr. Dobyns, she married Rev. Walter Warder, so long a popular and useful Baptist preacher in Mason County. Polly married Berry Dobyns. Lucy Porter, the youngest, married Mr. John Lamb in the year 1816, when he was twenty-six years of age. They went at once to live with his parents and remained at the old place until the year 1836, when they moved to the place on which he spent the rest of his life. His parents died before his removal. His new farm was made up of land purchased from various parties. Part of it was land once owned by John Kenton, and he purchased some hundred acres or more of fine land from Judge Beatty, his near neighbor and friend for almost fifty years. On this place he built a new residence and here mainly was reared his large family of ten children whose names were as follows: William Porter, James Monroe, Kerilla, wife of Judge Emery Whitaker, Cornelia, Jane Porter,

Mr. John Lamb was the youngest of the children and he and one daughter were natives of Mason county. His birthday was the 12th of November, 1790. His father had purchased a piece of land, the most of which we understand is now embraced in the place owned by [illegible] Farrow. On this place he built an old fashioned Kentucky "hewed log" house and here was Mr. John Lamb's birthplace. No trace of it even in the shape of a foundation stone, we believe, remains. Mason county, it will be remembered, when it was formed by the Legislature of Virginia, included something like one fourth of all the territory now comprising the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and old Mr. William Lamb was also an early sheriff of this county under the original constitution of [illegible] hardly a living in his lifetime [illegible] forth through its forests and it was stirring one, if he was not a most active and energetic officer, that [illegible] the formal style of the old sheriffs, [illegible]. His son Pierce, we are informed, and a brother by the same name, were one of his deputies. The old gentleman lived on the place where he settled in Mason County to the time of his death.

In the same neighborhood there was a family of early settlers by the name of Wood, who were relatives of the Lambs. Peter and Harry Wood were cousins of Mr. Lamb and cousins also of our old neighbor, Thomas Dunlap. His mother's sister, Kitty Wilson married a Wood and another sister of Mrs. Dunlap was the wife of old Parson William Wood, a Baptist preacher in Maysville in the early time. The Birkheads at Lexington belong to the same family. The Lambs were also connected in some way with the family of Stevensons from which divers men of talents and influence have sprung. Col. Thos. B. Stevenson and Mr. John Lamb were kinsmen.

The family was without wealth in any of its branches, but was made up, we believe, throughout, of persons of integrity and good faith, and it was in these circumstances and with these surroundings that Mr. John Lamb began the long life which is just ended. Doubtless, after obtaining such education as could be had, there was the usual anxiety on his part and on the part of his family as to what he was to do. The choice was the trade of a saddler and he went to Georgetown and learned that trade with Job Stevenson, who was his relative. After learning his trade he worked for a time as a journeyman in Flemingsburg and there volunteered in the company of Captain Dennis Holt, as a soldier in the "late war" against the British. He was in no battle and his service was a short one, though he had the courage to have made a first rate soldier.

After his return, the question seems to have occurred in his case, as it does in so many cases of the young, what he was now to do in her somewhat changed circumstances. This time the determination was to go back to his home and live with his parents—prompted perhaps mainly by affection for them and a desire to assist them along the downhill part of their journey. But there comes next in his life an event, which may indicate that other feelings, perhaps, contributed to his continued residence in that neighborhood.

Just across the North Fork, only a mile or two distant, there had settled on the farm now owned by B. F. Clift, a family from Virginia by the name of Porter. Mrs. Porter was the aunt of the famous "Extra Billy Smith" and her house-full of boys and girls made an interesting and attractive home. One of the sons was Thomas Porter, who married a daughter of Squire Harry Pierce, of Fleming county, and who was long a leading and influential citizen of that county. Her other sons were [illegible] and Jesse Porter, both men of respectability and standing. There were 4 daughters in the family. One married Charles Hill. Nancy was the wife of Samuel Conner. Betsey first married Mr. Charles Dobyns and was the mother of John P. and Luther Dobyns and of Mrs. John A. Kirk and Mrs. Simeon Lacey and Mrs. James Kenyon. After the death of Mr. Dobyns she married Rev. Walter Warder, so long a popular and useful Baptist preacher in Mason County. Polly married Rees Dobyns. Lucy Porter the youngest, married Mr. John Lamb in the year 1816 when he was twenty-six years of age. They went at once to live with his parents and remained at the old place until the year 1830, when they moved to the place on which he spent the rest of his life. His parents died before his removal. His new farm was made up of land purchased from various parties. Part of it was land once owned by John Kenton, and he purchased some hundred acres or more of the land from John Beatty, his near neighbor and friend for almost fifty years. On this place he built a new residence and here mainly was reared his large family of ten children whose names were as follows: William Porter, James Monroe, Cecilia, wife of Judge Emery Whitaker; Cornelia, wife Porter

Elizabeth M., wife of Frank Dobyns, Sarah Ann, Richard Johnson, Lucy Porter, wife of Dr. T. J. Rowland, Rachel and John. His wife died many years ago and he lived a long time a widower, his daughters, one after another as they grew up, taking charge of the household. Besides this farm he purchased a place across the "creek," adjoining the lands of Mr. George Riley and Mr. George Galbraith.

Here, then, is a life starting in hardship and poverty and in a wilderness, ending within a mile of the spot where it began, with hardship and poverty conquered and the wilderness blossoming like the rose; with a family of ten children reared in comfort and respectability and well connected in every direction, all loving and honoring him with unusual affection. This plain old man did, himself, the part of this work which fell to his lot, and he and his neighbors did the rest, for it was all done in his lifetime.

For the uses and purposes of this life the body is a large part of the man, and a human form that has defied disease and death for eighty-eight years is not a trifling thing to contemplate. Put twenty-one men of this age in a line, facing back through the centuries, and the front man will listen he

REMARKABLE BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION OF MRS. PRUDENCE GLOVER.

A Lady Who is Hale and Hearty After a Century of Life—Children and Children's Children to the Fifth Generation—Address of the Rev. I. D. Hobbs—List of Gifts and Guests.

The beautiful home of Mrs. Margaret Swift, on the Reading road, was yesterday the scene of a most unique and beautiful reception, which brought together friends, relatives, and family connections from half a dozen different States to celebrate the one hundredth birthday of her mother, Mrs. Prudence Glover.

Mrs. Glover was born in Frederick County, Maryland, 100 years ago yesterday, and is of English lineage. Ten years later, in 1790, her family removed to Kentucky, and in that State and Ohio her great length of days has been passed, the past thirty years having been spent, with the exception of visits to relatives in Kentucky, in the family of her beloved daughter and only surviving child, Mrs. Margaret Swift.

Mrs. Glover shows but little signs of having passed so far beyond the allotted age of man. She is perfectly erect, moves without support of cane or friendly arm, and would anywhere be taken for a woman of seventy-five. Her eyes are bright and her voice as clear as a girl's, and her laugh as merry. Her faculties are entirely unimpaired, with the exception of a slight deafness. She received her guests with cheerful greetings, welcoming old friends and making new ones at ease in a manner simply wonderful. Lord Bacon believed that some art of prolonging life was known to the ancients, and having been lost is recoverable. Mrs. Glover has not only discovered this art of length of days, which so often means in the very aged an awful waiting for release, but the secret of health and happiness.

The secret of longevity in her case seems to be a tranquil life, absence of irritability, a contented disposition, and a beautiful faith in the mercy and wisdom of that Divine Power in whose hand her life is and whose [illegible] which has sustained her all her days.

Mrs. Glover's descendants and connections by marriage are many of them people widely known and holding distinguished positions.

Among them are our well known citizens Mr. Briggs Swift and Mr. Alexander Swift, Gen. John D. Stephenson, of St. Louis, a grandnephew, the Oden and Swarts families of Iowa, the Bishop family, of Ohio, and the Smith family, of [illegible] County, Ind., represented by the Schell family. Mrs. Glover's oldest great-grandson, Mr. [illegible] Schell, being [illegible] in the United States [illegible] at San Francisco. The gentleman [illegible] by his four grandmothers—Mrs. Glover being the oldest—for two of his grandfathers.

Another great-grandson is Col. Lyman Adams Smith, of Arizona, a miner and rancher of large possessions, among not the least of which is a lovely Sonoritan wife and [illegible] children that spread Grandma Glover's name. In China is her grandniece, Mrs. Robert [illegible]. In Illinois are the Berger family, descended from her fourth oldest grandchild, Dr. [illegible] being married to Miss [illegible], of the [illegible].

The Swarts, of Bellevue, Iowa, represent the descendants of the youngest of Mrs. Glover's daughters.

Miss Jessie Lewis Schell, youngest great-granddaughter, is married to Mr. John C. Kennedy, of the War Department.

Mrs. Dr. Ronald, of Louisville, is a granddaughter, a daughter of Mr. W. E. Glover, Mrs. Prudence Glover's only son. Mr. R. R. Glover, of Louisville, is a nephew. One young gentleman, Mr. Adolph Meyer, seven years of age, attracted attention as the representative of the fifth generation, all of whom were alive when Adolph was born, and four of whom survive [illegible].

The ele[illegible] [illegible] under the superintendence of [illegible] Pilsa Fo[illegible] glancing [illegible] hundred [illegible] candles.

Gen. Stephenson led the way to the tables, with Mrs. Glover, and Mrs. Swift and Miss Addie dispensed the hospitalities of the occasion.

Rev. I. D. Hobbs, pastor of the Richmond Street Church, delivered the following happy address:

HONORED FRIENDS: By the grace of Mrs. Swift, our accomplished hostess, we have been invited to join her in a tribute of respect to her aged mother, to celebrate with pleasing festivity the one hundredth birthday of Mrs. Prudence Glover.

One hundred years ago to-day she was born in Frederick County, Maryland, "the land of sanctuary." Two years after Maryland adopted our National Constitution, and in the year 1790, two years before Kentucky was admitted as a State, she was borne westward to that Territory by the tide of emigration. Ten years more and she stood at Hymen's altar a happy, hopeful bride. Maternity, the brightest crown of womanhood, later shone with five stars. Only one of these remains to shed the beams of a tender light on her pathway.

A hundred years! What events are bound up in its ample sphere! A hundred springs with leaf and bud and bloom and bursting life; a hundred summers with growing corn and golden harvests; a hundred autumns with ripened fruits and many colored foliage; a hundred winters with fleecy snow, and chilling winds, and icy fetters; a hundred revolutions of old earth about the sun. All these has Grandmother Glover survived. Three and a half billion times and more has that aged heart kept time to the march of life. And if we could comprehend the number expressive of the thoughts and feelings, the joys and sorrows, the longings, hopes, and aspirations which have thronged the heart that has throbbed so long, we might shrink from transcending the bounds of a hundred years. But here is grandmother, apparently happy as any of us, looking with undaunted gaze into the pilgrimage of another century, and ready to move forward with elastic step.

It is said to be a law of the animal kingdom that the time from birth to maturity, multiplied by five gives the length of life. Accordingly the Psalmist says, "The days of our years are three score and ten; and if by reason of strength they be four score, yet is their strength labor and sorrow." But by a remarkable exception, providential, we may believe, Mrs. Glover has reached five score years with strength still firm, and vision clear enough to become a bride. And if any eligible centenarian of good looks and manly courage doubt it, let him pop the question. She might blush a little, I know, and appear somewhat coy, but, sir, press your suit, and there may be yet a sensation for the newspapers—a wedding in high life.

Humor aside, we all unite in hearty congratulations to you on this centennial celebration of your birthday. While you have been greatly blessed in its attainment, we are especially honored in being permitted to join in its celebration. Most, if not all of us, for the first time, now participate in such an event. We sincerely wish that you may be permitted to journey happily on into the new century which this day dawns upon you. And when the stars have paled, and the sun has grown old, may your live in immortal youth.

Mrs. Glover was the recipient of many beautiful gifts, her friends remembering her with superb baskets of [illegible] that banked the piano and filled every available niche. The chair in which she received was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, and an old handsome easy chair was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Briggs Cunningham.

Mr. Briggs Swift remembered grandma by $100 in gold, and Mr. Alex Swift duplicated the gift by another roll of golden eagles for a like sum. Miss Eva Bishop presented an exquisite cup and saucer of her own paterning; Miss E. B. Couden an exquisite dress cap, in which Mrs. Glover received; Miss Mamie Keck an exquisitely carved fan. A Kioto tete-a-tete set was from Mr. and Mrs. Keck. There were, besides, a multitude of pretty trifles, among them a carved tobacco box from Master Adolph Berger.

The reception was as successful as it was unique, and never were many happy returns of the d[illegible] wished with warmer cordiality.

Among the guests we noted Mr. Briggs Swift, Mr. Abe Swift, Mr. Alex. Swift, Mrs. Robt. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Sam. McKeehan, Mr. R. R. Glover, of Louisville, and daughter, Miss Ida Glover; Mr. and Mrs. Briggs Cunningham, Gen. J. D. Stephenson, of St. Louis; Mr. Geo. W. Trowbridge, Mrs. Ann Trowbridge, Rev. I. D. Hobbs and Mrs. Hobbs, J. L. Haven and Mrs. Haven, Mrs. [illegible] the Misses Haven, Mr. James McKeehan, [illegible] E. B. Couden, Mrs. E. R. M[illegible]hall, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bishop and Miss [illegible] Bishop, Mr. John Hargrave and Miss Hargrave, [illegible] and Mrs. Whitaker, of Maysville; Capt. Geo. [illegible] Covington; Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, Av[illegible], and Masters Ralph Glover Johnson and W[illegible] Johnson, Miss Annie Allen, of Louisville, Mrs. Hatney, Mrs. Pine, and [illegible]

ONE HUNDRED SUMMERS.

MRS. PRUDENCE GLOVER CELEBRATES HER CENTENNIAL BIRTHDAY.

GIFTS—A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE—REMINISCENCES—THE GUESTS.

To catch the rose-flushed dawnings of one hundred Junes is so rare an individual experience that when it comes in our midst we wonder and mark it. But when such length of years is also the lengthened use of mental faculties and sweet, superior grace, it is not strange that an extended circle of friends join in affectionate congratulations upon this phenomenal human experience.

Yesterday Mrs. Prudence Lamb Glover, the mother of Mrs. Margaret Swift, of the Reading road, four miles from Avondale, attained her one hundredth birthday.

Mrs. Glover was born in Frederick County, Md., on the 21st of June, 1780, and at the age of ten years removed to "Limestone," now Maysville, Washington County, Ky. At the age of twenty she married Mr. John Glover, of that place. She was the mother of five children, all of whom Mrs. Glover has survived, save one, her daughter, Mrs. Swift, with whom she is now living, and who had arranged for the social gathering of the many friends of her venerable mother, on yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Glover is in the enjoyment of excellent health and in possession of all her faculties. She received the guests courteously, and had a kindly word for all.

Mrs. Glover was the recipient of many presents, among which we notice an exquisite basket of flowers from Mrs. E. A. Menshall, with the letters "P. G." and numerals "100" in blue violets in the center; a beautiful bouillon set from Mrs. Henry Pearce; a rocking chair from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell, and also one from Mr. and Mrs. Briggs Cunningham; a box of handkerchiefs from Mrs. Briggs Swift; a beautiful feather fan from Mrs. Mary Evans; a basket of natural fruit from Jimmy Lamb; a [illegible] cup from Mrs. James [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] About fifty friends [illegible] the dining-room the venerable lady was escorted to a large easy chair, when five generations of her descendants [illegible] Of her children there was but one, Mrs. Margaret Swift—a beautiful white-haired lady, herself a great-grandmother. Then came the grandchildren, the great-grandchildren and the [illegible]—a sweet-faced little boy.

Before refreshments were served was read to the old lady a beautiful tribute, prepared for the occasion by the Rev. [illegible] Hobbs, the pastor of Richmond Street Christian Church.

REMINISCENCES.

There is an old proverb in the [illegible] that runs something to the [illegible] it is good luck to be born on the longest day of the year. Mrs. Glover's long, peaceful and prosperous life seems to indicate that in her case, at least, the old truism has been verified. Born on June 21, 1780—the longest day of the solar year—she has lived through the [illegible] vicissitudes of a century to the fair day of June 21, 1880, from where she may look backward over the changeful years, and trace the divine guidance of life, the hidden purposes and sweet significances that underlie it all.

Mrs. Glover was a young lady of nineteen when Washington died. She recalls clearly the "mock funeral" they had in Kentucky, where she then lived, and how all the women wore black dresses and white sashes. Her husband was in the war of 1812, and she will relate by the hour scenes and stories of those battles. Her comprehension of the things of the present is wonderful. She rejoiced that Garfield was nominated, and said, "I should have liked to have had Grant." Her health is excellent. She rises early in the morning, makes her bed and toilet without assistance. She reads, sews, and talks. [illegible] "thief" in which she replies [illegible]

THE GUESTS.

Guests came and went all that pleasant afternoon yesterday. The reception was an informal one, and scores of friends and neighbors came. Among guests noted were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hayden, the Misses Hayden, Mrs. McKechan, Mrs. Hargrave, Mr. Julius Hargrave, Mrs. Eunice Johnson, Mr. Theodore Swift, Mr. Abram Swift, Miss Margaret Swift, Rev. and Mrs. A. I. Hobbs, Mrs. Berger, the Masters Berger, General Stephenson, of St. Louis, Mr. Meyer and his son Adolph (who was the great-great-great grandchild), from St. Louis, Miss H. N. Wilson, Mrs. M. J. Pyle, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilson, Mrs. Henry Ruffner, Miss Sarah Ruffner, Mrs. Frank Handy, Mrs. Geo. Keck, Mrs. Briggs Swift, Miss Nannie Keck, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Trowbridge, Mrs. General Brown, Miss Lida Brown, Miss Julia Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bishop, Miss Eva Menshall, Dr. Bunker, Hon. M. C. Clymer, Mrs. Lydia Perry, Master Edwin Swift Clymer, Mrs. John Hammel, Judge Whittaker, of Maysville, Ky., Mr. and Miss Poyntz, Mr. Schell, Miss Clara Brown, Miss Condon, Mrs. N. L. Hansch, and others.

Mrs. Lydia Perry was the oldest of the guests present. Mrs. Perry celebrated her 82d birthday a few days ago at her home, and at this festival Mrs. Glover was present.

Master Edwin Swift Clymer, a dark-haired sweet-faced little boy, is the son of Alice Carey Clymer, a niece of Alice Carey, the poet. Mrs. Alice Carey Clymer was the daughter of Susan Carey, the elder sister of Alice and Phoebe Carey, who married Mr. Swift and died leaving this daughter, Alice Carey Swift, who became the wife of the Hon. M. C. Clymer. Mrs. Clymer died young, and, if we mistake not, died in New York at the home of her aunts, Alice and Phoebe Carey. It has been said that the "Mona" of one of Alice Carey's poems was Mrs. Clymer, and it is well known that her gifted aunts held her in the tenderest love. All those recollections and associations stirred an unusual interest in this boy. The sunset shadows were fast lengthening as the guests bade Mrs. Glover a lingering and affectionate adieu, and the venerable and beloved old lady was left in her beautiful home, looking toward sunset.

"Francis Innis Pioneer & His Descendants" by James Robert Innis Jr., 6476 Gaines Rd, Cincinnati, OH 45239 1982

21 (1). James Innis, born in Pennsylvania, Feb. 1, 1817, was married, first to Elizabeth, who was born in Kentucky on Sept. 20, 1820, daughter of Moses Lamb and Katherine Boone, who were born in Pennsylvania. Katherine, born March 4, 1785, daughter of Jonathan and Mary Boone, is thought to be a descendant of the family of Daniel Boone, the frontiersman. Elizabeth and James were married in Brown Co., Ohio, Aug. 15, 1844. Francis named this son as executor of his estate, showing his trust in his abilities in such matters. For a number of years, from before 1860, probably until his death, James resided across the road from his father's original farm, where Ann Innis lived, and diagonally across from Lamb's farm. Elizabeth died on Mar. 29, 1853, and was buried in Eden Cemetery, where her parents are also buried. Five children were born to James and Elizabeth:

i. Mary Ann Innis, b. Aug. 8, 1846; buried Eden Cem.
32. ii. Nancy Catherine Innis
33. iii. Amanda Jane Innis
iv. William Kaska Innis, died Nov. 5, 1852, aged 2 y. 11 m. 5 d., buried Eden.
34. v. James Boone Innis.

The second marriage of James Innis took place on July 28, 1853, to Martha A. Lamb, sister of his first wife. Both weddings were likely performed at the Eden Methodist Church, built in 1837, since the Lamb and Innis families lived practically within sight of it. Martha was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky,<Atlas of Brown Co., p.41> on Apr. 9, 1823, and came to Brown County with her parents when she was six. Children of James and Martha were:

vi. Charles Edward Innis, b. Mar. 23, 1855, Brown Co., died Feb. 27, 1876.
35. vii. Margaret Almoreta Innis (Margaretta)
36. viii. Sarah Rebecca Innis
ix. Martha Innis, b. Sept. 27, 1859, died Feb. 5, 1860, buried Eden Cemetery.
x. Martin Innis, b.& d. 1860, age 1 m. 8 d. Eden Cem.
37. xi. George Bruff Innis b. ca 1862

James farmed 246 acres in Lewis township until his death on Oct. 6, 1874. His will, written Oct. 1, and entered for probate, Oct. 17, 1874, named son James B. Innis as executor, mentioned each of his living children, by name, and a granddaughter, Louisa Mignary.<Brown County Will Book 5, p.549; File #12118> James is buried in Eden Cemetery, where a tall monument marks the spot. Martha died May 5, 1886, and was also buried at Eden.

22 (1). John Innis was born on Christmas Day, 1818, in Brown County, Ohio. When he matured, he joined his uncles who had gone

A vast domain in northern Ireland was thrown open to Protestant colonization. The Scotch, who were encouraged to settle there, were the choices of their people, picked men.

Then in 1698, upon the demand of the English, the Irish woolen mills were closed, for it was claimed that they sold at a lower price than in England; and 20,000 loom workers were thrown out of work.

One result of this action was to turn the Protestant artisans of Ulster to America, but this was just the beginning. In 1704 a test act was passed, almost as severe against the Protestants as against the Catholics. Public schooling was denied the non-conformists, marriages by their ministers were not recognized and children by such marriages were treated as bastards - denied a resting place in ancestral burying grounds of churches their fathers had founded. At one time in 1727 six ships loaded with families from Ulster landed in Philadelphia in one week. Throughout the rest of the 18th century the arrival of one or two a day was not uncommon.

As the fairy stories go - (by May Estabrook) Once upon a time (we don't know the date) two lads (brothers) ran away from Ireland and came to America. Their home had been in County Derry or Down and their name KILPATRICK. One of them was SAMUEL who was our great grandfather! He married MARTHA ROSBERG, near the town of Flemingsburg, Kentucky. Their children were JAMES (who had their name changed to KIRKPATRICK), SAMUEL, ANDREW, ROBERT, JOHN ROSBOROUGH, FINNEY, NANCY, MARGARET & ALEXANDER. Their mother, MARTHA, died in 1810 and father SAMUEL brought the family to Ohio.

ALEXANDER was our grandfather who lived with his sister, MARGARET, from 2 years of age until almost grown. At 11 years he was apprenticed to a man who had a woolen mill at Ripley, Ohio. Ripley is on the bank of the Ohio river and has been said to be the place where "ELIZA CROSSED THE ICE" in the book " Uncle Tom's Cabin". Grandfather said he began to use tobacco when he was 11 and used it until he was 70, then stopped. (This sentence is crossed out on the original manuscript. W.E.) He lived to within two weeks of 80 years. Was said to be honest and scrupulous and upright in all his dealings. A little stern (his children thought) in his own family but "aimed to do right".

At age 22 ALEXANDER married LAVINA EVANS of Virginia and, as the lady's father objected to the marriage, they were married at Ripley, O. at the home of MRS. POLLY COLLINS, the lady's sister. (LAVINA was only 19 and her father, GEORGE EVANS, had to give his approval of the marriage - court records. HHHK) ALEXANDER & LAVINA moved to Gooselick where he had a farm, and some time later they bought a part interest in a woolen mill at Beach Woods. Grandmother lived to have 6 children. She must have been very young when she married, for Grandfather was only 22 when they married. These children were CYRUS, GEORGE, WILLIAM, NANCY and 2 babies who died in infancy. LAVINA had several brothers and sisters: JANE, DAN, BETSY, BILL, ELIAS, GEORGE, ANNE & WYLIE who had a store in Decatur, whom I remember (M.E.)

UNCLE DAN EVANS had a bank at Ripley and a fine house that I remember (M.E.) for it had the first "conservatory" I ever saw. He was said to have left $75,000. at his death, quite a sum of money for 1870.

ALEXANDER & LAVINA were received from Ripley to the Red Oak Presbyterian Church in 1834. WILLIAM (my father) was baptized May 16, 1841. NANCY was baptized Mar. 8, 1845. Grandfather and his partners in the woolen mill did not get along; so he sold out and bought his factory in Decatur, Ohio.

After the death of LAVINA, when NANCY was 5, Grandfather married SARAH MCFERSON/ McPHERSON. This was in 1849. They had 5 children: JULIA * D.Y., SARAH, MARY, THOMAS & MARTHA. In 1852 they built the house in Decatur, and Grandfather owned and operated the woolen mill until after the Civil War when he sold it to CYRUS & WILLIAMS, his sons. CYRUS operated a grist mill and WILLIAM the woolen mill. Grandfather moved to a farm in Red Oak where he lived until his death. Grandfather's life was shortened by an accident. He was up at Decatur; drove the staid old family horse he had driven for years. Some men were operating a "new contraption" called a "threshing machine". Some of the crew, when they saw Grandfather pass, pulled the whistle cord to see what the horse would do when he first heard a whistle. The horse ran and threw Grandfather from the carriage, and he never entirely recovered from the fall.

WILLIAM went to Tonica, Ill. on business after the War and there met my mother, RANIE WILSON, who was assistant to my UNCLE LUTHER WILSON who was Postmaster. (I wish Mother has put in here a story she used to tell us that ran something like this: WILLIAM went into the Post Office one day in Tonica when RANIE was on duty there. He was dressed in the height of fashion with a handsome ruffled shirt showing from the front of his coat. RANIE turned to a friend after he was gone and said, "My, I'M glad I don't have to iron his shirts!" She met him soon after and, of course, wound up ironing his shirts and probably liking it. W.E.) They were married in 1868 and went to live in Ohio at Decatur after the brothers bought the factory from Grandfather. Their wedding was at URANIA'S sister's house (HENRIETTA WILSON) in Warren, Ohio, on Jan. 8, 1868.

WILLIAM had gone into the Civil War when very young - 18 - was wounded at Shiloh and then put into the Commissary Dept. for the duration. He was always very loyal to everything connected to the War; belonged to the G.A.R. until his death in 1924. He was also Knights Templar in the Masonic Order. He was a machinist by trade and worked for Warren Machine Works and Packard Electric Co.; was a member of the Warren Library Assoc. and a life-long member of the Presbyterian Church. Also a veteran of the Civil War Company C, 59th Regiment, O.V.I. He enlisted Sept. 16, 1861, served 3 years and was discharged Feb. 14, 1864 at Louisville, Ky. He was at one time Commander of Bell Harmon Post, G.A.R., Warren, Ohio; also Daughters of the Veterans. For many years he served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Trumbull Savings & Loan and Vice-President. In Warren he was known as "a man of wide acquaintance and staunch integrity" and had many friends. RANIE had died in 1908.

As a little girl (HELEN MAY, oldest of 3 little girls) I have a vivid remembrance of Decatur, Ohio where I was born in 1870. Our house was set back from the road ("pike" they called it there). ALEXANDER built the house in 1852, and William H. took it over when he came back to Decatur after the War and was married. The yard was on a slope down to the road and was surrounded with a four foot stone wall. A gate and stone steps led down to the road. There were 5 cedar trees scattered on the lawn - one was Dad, one Mother, one May, one Bertha, and one the baby, Edith. A stone walk from the door went down to the stepsand,thence,to the road. The house was two story with a hall through the center; living room on left (called the parlor) as you entered, kitchen at right rear with well at back door and curb and windlass. Stairs went up from the front hall with sleeping rooms upstairs. There was a wood house in the back yard and a smoke house right back of the house. The lane back to the barn went up to the left if the front yard. A black walnut tree stood at the entrance to the lane.

Across the road was the home of UNCLE CYRUS KIRKPATRICK and AUNT "MANDA". As I recall it was a white house behind a white picket fence. They had had one son, WILLIE, who died young and another son, CHARLES, who became a doctor and lives in Nebraska.

Beyond a fence and below our house was our orchard and then the mill pond and factory. We had a chain swing in our orchard and blackberries on the rear fence. We could go down through our orchard to the factory buildings or down the road and across a bridge over the water from the overflow from the mill pond.

There was the main building that housed the factory where woolen cloth was made; also half of the building was UNCLE CYRUS'S grist mill. There was the building where they spun and wove yarn and made blankets. Across the road were the sales rooms. These were the days before men's clothes were made wholesale. People bought the cloth by the yard and yarn by the skein, and suits and stockings were made at home or by the tailor. Back of the main buildings and along the edge of our orchard by the mill pond were the "tenting bars" where woven cloth was hung to dry and stretch.

As you passed the factory, up the hill toward town, you passed a little house where Mr. & Mrs. Rodgers lived. Mr. R. worked for Father and Mrs. R used to sit in her door and smoke a pipe (much to my amazement). As you climbed a little farther up the grade, it seems as though you passed a blacksmith's on the right, then came to the Main Street of the town which crossed at right angles. Here was the town "Common". You turned right to go to our church (presbyterian). If you turned left you passed WILEY EVANS'S store; farther down was our doctor's office (Dr. Black). As you kept straight ahead on the road that skirted the Common, you came to Howland's store.

When I was 8 years old, Men began to get ready-made suits of clothes and people bought ready-to-wear stockings. WILLIAM & CYRUS decided to go west as Horace Greeley advised. Our minister, John McClung, whose wife Jennie was a distant relative, had gone to Paola, Kansas, liked it there and had written to William that there was an opening for a woolen mill expert. UNCLE CYRUS went to Nebraska, to Omaha, I think.

We had a public sale and left Decatur about 1878. Father had a woolen mill to build and put in running order at Paola, Kansas. We liked the West and had settled our household goods in a rented house, gone out on the prairie to pick wild plums, gone to see the wife of a real Indian chief and were beginning to feel at home, but Mother was taken sick; then the rest of the family - all but father. We called the doctor who pronounced it "fever and ague" and "no cure but to have a change of climate". So we left Father in Kansas to finish his job, and we returned to Warren Ohio where we later settled and stayed. This was in northern Ohio where Mother's (Urania's) two sisters lived and not far from Portage County where she grew up. We lived there over 30 years. WILLIAM & URANIA died there as did my sister BERTHA. URANIA suffered and died of tuberculosis. JOHN & EDITH lived in Warren, MAY moved to California in 1909 and LEE ROY moved to Pa. where he died in 1941 of heart trouble after an appendix operation.

More about URANIA and her relatives and WILLIAM'S descendants. Copied & added to by HHHK

ADDENDA: There is a War of 1812 application for Bounty Land and Pension for JOHN KIRKPATRICK & JAMES KIRKPATRICK. An affidavit by JAMES states that both brothers were drafted June 18, 1812 in Flemingsburg, Fleming Co., Ky. Served under the name of KILPATRICK - the name used before this time. Further states their father - name not given - told them their real name was KIRKPATRICK and, thereafter, they went by said name. There should be a War of 1812 record of their service in Ky.

DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL KIRKPATRICK

The first record of SAMUEL KIRKPATRICK, our earliest known ancester of this surname, is his marriage to MARTHA ROSEBURGH at her father's house in Hopewell Twp., York Co., PA on 19 April 1791. Rev. James Cookson performed the ceremony and registered it in the Guinston U.P. Church of Chanceford, York Co, PA. My husband, ROBERT J. KIRKPATRICK, found the marriage record 1 August 1980 in the Library of the Historical Society at York, PA. On that same trip we found the Will of MARTHA's father, SAMUEL ROSEBURGH, among the earliest Wills recorded in the Allegheny Co, PA courthouse in Pittsburgh, PA. He must have died in Pittsburgh between the writing of the Will on 19 December 1807 & its being recorded in 1808, no day or month being given.

SAMUEL ROSEBURGH's family, named in the Will, were his wife, AGNESS, and seven children: JOHN, JANNET, AGNESS, MARTHA, JANE or JEAN, THOMAS & WILLIAM. In addition to the marriage record of SAMUEL & MARTHA in the Guinston Church Register are the following: JANNET & JOHN AITKIN of Chanceford married 16 April 1798, JEAN & JACOB SANGRIE of Chanceford married 8 October 1801 and WILLIAM & PEGGIE (GROVE) of Chanceford married at the home of THOMAS GROVE 6 October 1801. THOMAS, son of SAMUEL & AGNESS ROSEBURGH, was born 2 August 1775, baptised 17 September 1775. Son WILLIAM was baptised 5 October 1778. SAMUEL ROSEBURGH, himself, was ordained an Elder of the Guinston U.P. Church on 15 Jun 1786. Since the births and baptisms of the older children were not recorded here, it seems logical to assume that they were born before the family settled in York Co.,PA.

In Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, PA, there is a biographical sketch of another ROSEBURGH family whose immigrant ancestor, JOHN, a native of Ireland, came to America as a young man. He settled in New York first and lived for awhile in York, PA before moving to Pittsburgh, PA in 1793. It is possible that our SAMUEL ROSEBURGH was also a native of Ireland and a brother of JOHN and could have come to America with JOHN. Some of his children could have been born in Ireland or New York, only the two youngest, THOMAS & WILLIAM, being born in York Co.,PA.

Future research might include looking for the ROSEBURGHs in the 1850 census of Pittsburgh and York Co. to see where son JOHN, JANNET (ROSEBURGH) AITKIN & JANE (R) SANGRIE were born. AGNESS may not have married but would be listed in the census as unmarried.

There were KIRKPATRICK/KILPATRICK families on the frontier in PA in the early 1700's. When and from where SAMUEL KIRKPATRICK or his family came to America have not been ascertained yet, but in the 1880 census, which recorded the places of births of parents, PHINEAS, SAMUEL JR & ALEXANDER reported that their father came from Ireland. In 1765, 66, 67 & 68 there was a SAMUEL KILPATRICK, single freeman, living in Birmingham Twp, Chester Co,PA. On 25 November 1777 a SAMUEL KIRKPATRICK took the oath of Allegiance in Lancaster Co, PA. In the 1790 census of York Co, PA there a SAMUEL KILPATRICK with a wife and 4 sons under 16 and 1 daughter. In 1781 there was a SAMUEL KIRKPATRICK in the Martic Twp, Lancaster Co, PA Militia, Capt. James Taylor's 7th Co., 6th Battery; in Cumberland Co,PA there was a SAMUEL KIRKPATRICK in Capt. Patrick Jack's 6th Co., 4th Battery, Lt. Col. Samuel culbertson COMMANDING second time. Sometime before 20 Sep 1888, ALEXANDER had a serious accident.

MAY's history says, "Grandfather's life was shortened by an accident. He was up at Decatur; drove the staid old family horse he had driven for years. Some men were operating a 'new contraption' called a 'threshing machine'. Some of the crew, when they saw Grandfather pass, pulled the whistle cord to see what the horse would do when he first heard the whistle. The horse ran and threw Grandfather from the carriage and he never entirely recovered from the fall." On the 20th of September 1888 THOMAS SCOTT wrote to his half-brother, WILL, that "Father is just about the same, a little weaker maybe. He is flighty at times. GEORGE is here and has a notion to sue.....Father's feet are badly swollen today. The ends of his fingers are turning black. He does not suffer near as much as as he did when you were here. There is quite a sore on his hips. It was scalded." (by the fall?) Apparently, no one sued the men who caused the accident, for there is no record in the Brown County courthouse of a court case.

ALEXANDER died 30 Sep 1888 and was buried at Red Oak. His obituary lauded him for his wisdom, piety and fitness to rule, referring to his being chosen an Elder in both the Decatur and the Red Oak Presbyterian Churches. He had joined the total abstinence society in 1829 when he joined the Presbyterian Church of Ripley, whose preacher was Rev.JOHN RANKIN, the abolitionist.

Of all the children of SAMUEL & MARTHA, ALEXANDER was the last to be born and the latest to die. The descendants of these KIRKPATRICKS are widely scattered today. THE END

wanted to make sure that both her mirrors would be duly appreciated, too. She directed that her daughter Mary have "my largest Looking Glass" and "my granddaughter, Margaret Long, my second Looking Glass." (Notice the capitalized words. Here, as in many old wills, the deliberate capitalization sets objects out as if they were personified by their proud owners!)

Clothes figure largely in wills. Often they are bequeathed as a rich legacy, whether or not they fitted the recipients; occasionally, women's clothes were given to a man—probably to distribute to his women-folk or, as in at least one instance, to hold until he had a wife and family.

HANNAH MCROBERTS—The new Black Clock.

Dated February 12, 1812—Recorded March 5, 1812

Hannah McRoberts certainly considered her "body cloathes" as major items to hand down to her daughters and granddaughters, when she dictated her will. But the most valuable thing in her will was probably "the new Black Clock" which she directed was to go "to the grandson that lives with me."

We find that men's wills are much more concerned with bequests of clothing than are women's. One reason, of course, is that men always owned their own clothes and could give them away when they were through with them. Women did not often have that privilege. But the conjecture is made that most men prided themselves on their wearing apparel and they enjoyed having as many fine clothes as they could afford.

SAMUEL ROSEBURGH—My Great Coat, blue straight Coat and Velvet Vest Coat.

Dated December 19, 1807—Recorded 1808

I allow my wife Agnes Roseburgh to be kept decently—during her natural life. And my whole estate, real or personal, to be divided equally amongst my seven children, John, Jannet, Agnes, Martha Jane, Thomas, and William, and over and above I bequeath to my son John, my Great Coat, blue straight Coat and Velvet Vest Coat.

In the 1800's, men's coats were high-waisted, double-breasted in style, with a deep cut-out just above the waistline in front. From there, the coat fell away in the back to a long-tailed skirt. Mr. Roseburgh's "Velvet Vest Coat" was probably in style with that period—cut high in a straight line across the front so that several inches of it showed under his buttoned-up outer coat, and it probably had the broad lapels which were in favor at the time. The "Great Coat," or overcoat, would be fitted a little more at the waistline, its skirts would be full and long, with small cuffs on the sleeves and perhaps two little capes wanted to make sure that both her mirrors would be duly appreciated, too. She directed that her daughter Mary have "my largest Looking Glass" and "my granddaughter, Margaret Long, my second Looking Glass." (Notice the capitalized words. HANNAH MCMICHAEL—The new Black Cloak.
Dated February 12, 1813—Recorded March 5, 1813

Hannah McMichael certainly considered her "body clothes" a major asset to hand down to her daughters and granddaughters, when she dictated her will. But the most valuable thing in her will was probably "the new Black Cloak" which she directed was to go "to the grandson that lives with me."

" At twenty-two he (ALEXANDER) married LAVINA EVANS of Virginia and as the lady's father objected to the marriage, they were married at Ripley, O. at the home of Mrs. Polly Collins, the lady's sister. They moved to Gooselick where he had a farm. Some time after bought part interest in a woolen mill at Beach Woods. Grandmother lived to have 6 children. She must have been very young when she was married for Grandfather was only 22. Grandmother had several bro. & sis: Jane, Dan, Betsy, Bill, Elias, George, Anne and Wylie who had a store in Decatur, whom I remember. Uncle Dan Evans had a bank in Ripley and a fine house that I remember for it had the first "conservatory" I ever saw. He was said to have left $75,000 at his death. Quite a sum of money for 1870. ALEXANDER & LAVINA KIRKPATRICK were received from Ripley to Red Oak Pres. Church in 1834. WILLIAM (my father) was baptized May 16, 1841 Nancy Bapt Mar 8, 1845. Grandfather and his partners in the woolen mill did not get along; so he sold out and bought his factory at Decatur, Ohio.

After the death of our Grandmother (LAVINA), when Nancy was five, Grandfather (ALEX) married Sarah McPherson. This was in 1849. They had four children: Mary, Sarah, Scott & Martha. In 1852 they built the house in Decatur, and Grandfather owned and operated the woolen mill until after the Civil War when he sold it to CYRUS & WILLIAM, his sons. CYRUS operated the grist mill and his bro. the woolen mill. Grandfather moved to a farm in Red Oak where he lived until his death."

The Augusta militia were called out in April, 1779, by Col. Sampson Mathews, and rendezvoused at Staunton on the 16th. The company was commanded by Capt. James Trimble. Joseph Bell of South River was orderly sergeant, and Alexander Hamilton was one of the privates. They marched to Tygart's Valley, and returned home after an absence of three months. Hamilton states in his "declaration" that he was on several scouts, but in no battle.

By the year 1779, courthouse No. 2 required fixing up, and the sheriff was ordered to employ workmen to repair the under-pinning and windows, so that business might be done therein; and also to rent out the old courthouse, in which jailor Thomas Rhodes then lived.

THE POAGES.

Robert Poage, with many other settlers in the Valley, appeared at Orange court, May 22, 1740, to "prove his importation," with the view of taking up public lands. The record sets forth that he, his wife, Elizabeth, and nine children, named, came from Ireland to Philadelphia, "and from thence to this colony," at his own expense. He may have come some years earlier than the date mentioned, but we find no trace of him before that time. Alexander Breckinridge proved his importation on the same day, and very likely the two families came over in the same ship.

Mr. Poage settled on a plantation three miles north of Staunton, which he must have purchased from William Beverley, as the land was in Beverley's Manor. The tract contained originally seven hundred and seventy-two acres. It was there, no doubt, that the young preacher, McAden, obtained his first dinner in Virginia, on Saturday, June 21, 1755.

But he acquired other lands directly from the government. There is before us a patent on parchment, executed by Governor Gooch, July 30, 1742, granting to Robert Poage three hundred and six acres of land "in the county of Orange, on the west side of the Blue Ridge," to be held "in free and common soccage, and not in capite or by knight's service," in consideration of thirty-five shillings; provided the grantee should pay a fee rent of one shilling for every fifty acres, annually, "on the feast of St. Michael the Archangel," etc. The seal attached to the patent has on it an impression of the royal crown of Great Britain.

The will of Robert Poage, dated October 20, 1773, was proved in court March 6, 1774. The executors were William Lewis and testator's son, John. The testator mentions his sons John, Thomas, Robert, George and William; and his daughters Martha Woods, Elizabeth Crawford and Margaret Robertson. To the last six he gave only "one pistol," each, having provided for them otherwise. The son Thomas is not named in the Orange county court record, and the presumption is that he was born after the family came to America. The record referred to mentions, however, two daughters, Mary and Sarah, who are not named in the will. Both had probably died before the date of the will. One of these, it is supposed, was the first wife of Major Robert Breckinridge (son of Alexander), who died while quite young, leaving two sons, Robert and Alexander Breckinridge, who became prominent citizens of Kentucky.

pub. Carrier Co., Bridgewater, VA

William Poage, son of Robert, probably removed first to Albemarle (see Hening, Vol. 7, p. 203), and finally to Kentucky.

The only children of Robert and Elizabeth Poage, of whom we have any particular account, are their sons John and Thomas.

① John Poage qualified as assistant to Thomas Lewis, surveyor of Augusta county, May 20, 1760. In 1763, he was a vestryman of Augusta Parish. On March 17, 1778, he became high sheriff, and on the next day qualified as county surveyor. His will, dated February 16, 1789, and proved in court April 22, 1789, mentions his wife, Mary; and his children, Robert, George, James, John*, Thomas*, Elizabeth* and Ann. Of most of these nothing is known.

1. Robert Poage, son of John, qualified as assistant county surveyor, June 16, 1778. Nothing else is known of him.

over * ② James Poage married his cousin, Mary Woods, daughter of Mrs. Martha Woods, who was a daughter of Robert Poage, Sr. He moved to Kentucky, and was a member of the Kentucky Legislature in 1796. He had two sons, Andrew and George, both Presbyterian ministers; and two daughters, Margaret, wife of the Rev. T. S. Williamson, M. D., and Sarah, wife of the Rev. G. H. Pond. The last couple were missionaries.

3. John Poage, son of John, succeeded his father as county surveyor. He lived on a farm near Mowry's Mill, about five miles north of Staunton, and died in 1827, leaving several children, most of whom went west. His son James, who remained in Augusta, died in 1876.

4. Thomas Poage, son of John, Sr., was a promising young minister, who died in 1793. He had recently married a Miss Jane Watkins, to whom and his brother John, he left his estate. The witnesses to the will were the Rev. William Wilson and the Rev. John Poage Campbell. The latter and John Poage were appointed executors. Mr. Campbell's name was originally simply John Campbell, but he added the name Poage on account of his devotion to his friend, Thomas Poage.

5. Elizabeth, daughter of John Poage, Sr., was the wife of the Rev. Dr. Moses Hoge, long president of Hampden Sidney College. She was married August 23, 1783, and died June, 1802. Her three sons were eminent ministers, viz: Rev. Dr. James Hoge, of Columbus, Ohio; Rev. John Blair Hoge, a man of brilliant genius, who died young, at Martinsburg; and Rev. Samuel Davies Hoge, who also died young, the father of the Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D., of Richmond.

Of George and Ann Poage, the remaining children of John Poage, Sr., nothing is known.

II. Thomas Poage, son of Robert, Sr., inherited and lived on his father's homestead. His wife was Polly McClanahan, a daughter of Robert and Jane McClanahan. His will, proved in court, January 24, 1803, mentions his children, viz: Elijah, Robert, John, William, Elizabeth, Ann, Polly and Agnes.

1. Elijah Poage married Nancy Grattan, daughter of John Grattan, July 3, 1787, and went to Kentucky.

2. Robert Poage, son of Thomas, Sr., married Martha Crawford, September 15, 1791, and went to Kentucky.

3. John Poage, son of Thomas, Sr., married, November 27, 1792, Mrs. Rachel Crawford, widow of John Crawford, of Augusta, and daughter of Hugh Barclay, of Rockbridge. He lived in Rockbridge, on a farm given to him by his father, and was the grandfather of Colonel William T. Poage of Lexington.

4. William Poage, youngest son of Thomas, Sr., was the Major Poage who lived many years on the ancestral farm, three miles from Staunton. His first wife was Betsy, daughter of Colonel Andrew Anderson. She died without issue, and he married again, Peggy Allen, (see "The Allens,") by whom there was a large family. His son Thomas, a rising lawyer in southwest Virginia, was Colonel of the Fiftieth Virginia regiment when he was killed, on Blackwater, in February, 1863. One of Major Poage's daughters is the wife of General James A. Walker, late Lieutenant-Governor of Virginia.

5. Ann Poage, daughter of Thomas, Sr., married Major Archibald Woods, of Botetourt, March 5, 1789, who was a son of Mrs. Martha Woods, daughter of Robert Poage, Sr. Major Woods removed to Ohio county, and died in 1846. His son, Thomas, who was cashier of the North Western Bank of Virginia, at Wheeling, was the father of the Rev. Edgar Woods, of Pantops Academy, Albemarle.

6. Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas Poage, Sr., was the wife of the Rev. William Wilson, of Augusta church.

7. Polly, daughter of Thomas Poage, Sr., was the wife of Thomas Wilson, a brother of the Rev. William Wilson. Thomas Wilson lived at Morgantown, Northwest Virginia, and was a lawyer, member of Congress, etc. His son, the Rev. Norval Wilson, was long a prominent minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, and one of his daughters, Mrs. Louisa Lowrie, was a missionary in India. Among the grandsons of Thomas Wilson is Bishop Alpheus Wilson of the M. E. church.

8. Agnes Poage, daughter of Thomas, Sr., died unmarried.

Another family of Poages came from Ireland and settled in Rockbridge county. The name of the ancestor is not known. He was, probably, a brother of Robert Poage, Sr., who settled in Augusta about 1740. His wife was Jane Somers. They had ten children. One of the sons, Jonathan, was the grandfather of Dr. Poage, late of Rockbridge, and of Mrs. Lane, a missionary in Brazil, and others. A daughter, Ann, was the wife of Isaac Caruthers, and has many descendants widely scattered. Another daughter, Martha, married James Moore. The fifth child of James and Martha Moore was called Mary, after her father's oldest sister, who was the wife of Major Alexander Stuart, father of Judge Archibald Stuart. Mary Moore became the wife of the Rev. Samuel Brown, of New Providence. When a child, nine years of age, living with her parents in Abb's Valley, now Tazewell county, she and others were carried off by Indians, July 14, 1786, and detained in captivity three years.

THE CUNNINGHAMS.

Robert Cunningham, a native of north Ireland, settled on a farm called Rock Spring, in Augusta county, about the year 1735. He was one of the first set of justices of the peace appointed in 1745, and afterward a member of the House of Burgesses. His wife was a widow Hamilton, and the mother of several children at the time of her second marriage. One of her daughters, Mary Hamilton, married David Campbell, and was the mother of John and Arthur Campbell, and others. Two of the daughters of Robert Cunningham also married Campbells. He had no son. His daughter, Martha, about the year 1750, married Walter Davis, who became the owner of Rock Spring farm. Mr. Davis never held civil office, but was an elder of Tinkling Spring church, and a man of much influence. His daughter, Margaret, married John Smith, and was the mother of Judge Daniel Smith, of Rockingham. His son, William Davis, born in 1765, married Annie Caldwell, and died about 1851, aged eighty-six. He was a man of high standing in the community, a justice of the peace, high sheriff, etc. Walter Davis, Jr., son of William, born in 1791, was for many years one of the two commissioners of the revenue in Augusta county, and noted for his faithful and intelligent discharge of the duties of his office. His wife was Rebecca Van Lear. William C. Davis, a brother of Walter Davis, Jr., removed to Missouri in 1836 or 1837. Dr. Thomas Parks, of Missouri, is the only surviving grandchild of Walter Davis, Sr.

John Cunningham, believed to have been a brother of Robert, lived in Staunton, his residence being on Lot No. 1, southwest corner of Augusta street and Spring Lane. He had three daughters and one son. His oldest daughter was Mrs. Margaret Reed, who was baptized

Thomas Spooner vs. the widow and heirs of Marshall McKinley, deceased, and Moses Lamb.	Chancery.

BE it remembered, that on this day the complainant filed in said Court his certain Bill in chancery, setting forth among other things that on the 9th day of November, 1847, he sold to one Marshall McKinley thirty-two by sixty six feet of In-lot No. (130) one hundred and thirty, in Aberdeen, Brown county, Ohio, and bound himself to make a general warranty deed for said property on the payment of the purchase money, to secure the payment of which the title of said premises was retained by complainant—that all the purchase money has been paid except the amount of a bill drawn by said McKinley on Moses Lamb for two hundred and eighty seven dollars, payable to the complainant or order four months after the sale aforesaid; that said Lamb accepted said bill, but left the county without paying the same or any part thereof, and that said bill was duly protested and notice thereof given to said McKinley, who agreed to pay the same, with all interest, costs and damages. The bill further states that said McKinley has departed this life, that he left no property to pay said residue of the purchase money, and that no administration has been granted on his estate—that said money still remains unpaid, and is a lien on the property so sold. The prayer of the bill is that said property be sold by order of said Court to make said residue of the purchase money, and interest, damages and costs, and for general relief.

And the defendant, Moses Lamb, not being a resident of the State of Ohio, notice is hereby given that he appear and plead, answer or demur to said bill according to law and the rules of said Court, or the matters as to him will be taken as confessed, and decreed upon accordingly.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.

Death of Mr. Jesse Printy, in the 98th year of His Age.

In our last issue we noticed briefly the death of Mr. Jesse Printy, an aged and respected citizen of this township, stating that we would, in our next issue, give a full account of his life and death, which will be found below:

Jesse Printy was born March 28th, 1784, near Trenton, New Jersey. His father came from Ireland, served through the revolutionary war in the Continental army, after which he married a daughter of John Coleman, a large farmer near Trenton. The Printy family removed to Pennsylvania about the year 1788, and back to New Jersey the following year. In 1796 they came to Limestone, now Maysville, Ky., and settled a few miles back of there on the land of Timothy Downing. Here began the pioneer life of Jesse Printy. Though only twelve years old at this time, he was soon in the forrest chopping, clearing, making rails, and fencing the new land, making maple sugar in the spring, and working in the corn, wheat, flax, &c., in the summer. Although the opportunities to obtain an education at that time were very limited, he succeeded in learning to read and write, and obtained a very fair knowledge of arithmetic. At the age of twenty-two he married Mary York, of Mason county, and in 1808, he removed to Ohio, and settled on what was then known as Mead's land, on Bullskin creek, Lewis township, Brown county, then almost an unbroken forest. Clearing, fencing and tilling the soil were again the requisites for obtaining a livelihood. Coopering, which he had learned to do in Kentucky, afforded him profitable employment in winter.

In 1839 he sold out on Bullskin, and came to Pleasant township, to the farm now owned by his son, John R. Printy, on Whiteoak, and remained there until 1856, when he removed to the farm of his son-in-law, Robert Lyon, who died that summer. At the request of his daughter, Rachael Lyon, Mr. Printy, although more than seventy years old, assumed the management of the farm, in which he continued for nine years successfully, giving up the farm in superior condition and repair. At eighty, though sound in body and mind, he gave up the active duties of life and prepared to end his days in comfort and peace. In 1872 he experienced the greatest sorrow of his life. The wife of his youth, who had been his companion for sixty-six years, was taken from him. After that he cared no more to live, but his splendid constitution and great vitality would not yet let him go. He continued in moderate health until last April, when he got his leg broken. Since then he was confined to his bed till death ended his suffering last Satur-day night at [illegible] o'clock. Had he lived until the 28th inst., he would have been ninety-eight years old.

But four of his children are living out of a family of ten, and they are, besides the two above mentioned, Mamre Teagarden of Lewis township, and David C. Printy of Clermont county.

Mr. Printy was charitable in his dealings with other men, and had a kind heart and generous disposition. He had a strong mind which retained its vigor to the last. He was a man of great industry and did much to make fertile and beautiful fields of the forrest that existed here seventy years ago. He lived a useful and honest life, and died a peaceful death. On Tuesday, March 7th, after prayer by Rev. J. P. Daugherty, his remains were buried [illegible] family cemetery near John R. Printy

rebutting —

George Berkley testifies that he is brother to Mary Dugin, that the Intestate was his Grandfather & Guardian that he is now 34 years old, that the Intestate never did in his life time settle his account as Guardian with witness, that the first time he came to the knowledge of the settlement made by Intestate with Bracken Court in August 1826, was about two years ago that he had searched the Clerk's office twice before without finding said settlement, that shortly after he found said recorded settlement he informed Dugin of the fact, that Dugin was with him the first time the search for said settlement ~~was made~~ without success.

R. E. Campbell as assignee in trust for the benefit of

Vs.
W. J. Evans, et al, Defendants.

Now comes the defendant Louisa Evans and for answer to the petition in the above case, says: That she is the wife of the aforesaid assignor, W. J. Evans: That she never rec'd any part of the consideration of the note and mortgage held by the defendant Debora Heizer, in the petition mentioned, and signed the same at the request of her husband W. J. Evans, for the purpose only of releasing her contingent right to dower in the premises described in said mortgage for the benefit of said mortgagee and for no other purpose whatever: That the value of the premises described in said mortgage is greatly in excess of the amount necessary to pay off said note and mortgage Defendant further says as to the rest and residue of the real estate described in said petition, she consents that the same may be sold free of her contingent right to dower therein and elects to take the value thereof in money out of the proceeds of such sale.

Seventy years and the age of her said husband W. J. Evans, is Seventy five years. Wherefore defendant prays that on the report of the sale of the lands in the petition described the value of her contingent right to dower therein, may be found, fixed and determined by the court and as to that part of said real estate not incumbered by said mortgage to said Debora Heizer, She may be found to have the first and best lien on the proceeds of the sale thereof and that such a part of the value of her contingent dower interest, in all of said lands in the petition described as the proceeds of the sale of the unincumbered lands bears to the proceeds of the sale of the whole premises, may be first ordered paid to her out of such proceeds and that she may be found to have the 2nd lien upon that part of said real estate so mortgaged as aforesaid to the said Debora Heizer, and that out of the proceeds of the sale of said incumbered portion of said premises, after the payment of said mortgage she may be ordered next paid the rest and residue of the value of her contingent dower interest in all of the premises in said petition described and for all other and further relief to which she maybe entitled in premises.

Evans made and delivered to the defendant Debora Heizer his certain promissory note of that date and thereby promised to pay said Heizer or order the sum of Eleven hundred dollars with interest thereon from said date at the rate of Eight per cent per annum; said interest was by the terms of said note to be paid annually. To secure the payment of said note said W.J. Will

In the name of God Amen, I William Lamb being low in health, but of sound and perfect memory do make this my last Will and testament in the form and manner following to wit: It is my wish that my moveable property should be sold, except such as I reserve for the use of my wife, which I will hereafter mention, the moveable property sold, is to pay my just and lawful debts, and if the moveable property sold should not be enough to pay my just and lawful debts. I wish my whole plantation (except where my daughter Elizabeth Berry lives (two acres) rented out, and my negroes Celah, Hiram and George hired out so long as the administrators may think proper to pay the ballance of my debts after leaving a sufficient support yearly out of the rent of the land and hire of said negroes for my wife, out of my moveable property I reserve to my wife for her own use, a good bed, bed stead, bedding, a roan mare called Nelly, a saddle and bridle, her choice of my cows, a breeding sow, and her choice of three hogs to fatten for her own use and benefit, and a sufficiency of provisions of all descriptions which I have now on hand to support herself and the family of negroes until Christmas next, and the cupboard she is also to have, she is also to have her choice of houses viz. the one I am now living in, or the one my son Paul Lamb now lives in, And after renting my land and hiring my negroes in the manner above mentioned and for the purpose aforesaid, until all my debts are paid. I wish my land still to be rented and Hiram and George hired, and my wife Sarah Lamb to receive the profits thereof to do as she pleases with, and Celah to wait on her during her natural life. And any person renting my plantation or any part thereof (as the administrators may think proper to lay it off for the benefit of renters) does not punctually pay the rent at the end of the year they are to be turned off, at the year's end, and another put in his place, Elizabeth Berry is to pay no rent. For a debt of upwards of three hundred dollars I owe the estate of James K. Berry deceased, a negro woman named Sally now in possession of the heirs of said Berry is to remain in possession of said Berry's heirs until the year one thousand eight hundred and forty four in March provided they will not take said woman at three hundred dollars for said purpose, she is to be hired out with the rest for the payment of my debts, provided the administrators may think it more advisable to hire said woman Sally for what she will hire for until the year 1842 to any one person where she will be well taken care of, by the person hiring paying one hundred dollars down, and the interest of one hundred dollars from the time I gave my obligation to James H. Perry they are to do so, but should my debts be sooner paid by renting and hiring as aforesaid said woman is to come and remain with my wife Sarah Lamb during her life, the child said woman has now with her named Martha, I give to Rachel Jane Perry until said girl arrives to the age of forty years and then said girl to be free, and should the said girl have any increase they are to be for the use and benefit of Rachel Jane Perry or her heirs until they arrive to the age of thirty six when they are to be free, and the said Rachel Jane or her heirs to furnish each one of them as they are freed, a suit of clothes. A woman by the name of Grace who has been a good and faithful servant, she is to have the house she now lives in and the garden attached to it during her servitude which will be until January 1828 when she is to be free, but during the time of her servitude said Grace is to give her mistress one half the profits of said garden, but should my wife decease before the ~~time~~ term of servitude of said woman, she is to serve no other person, but have the use of said house and garden for her own benefit until January 1828. a cow which she now claims, and all other property now in her possession belonging to her she is to keep, My negro Kelah is to remain in possession of my wife during her life and at her death to be sold until the year 1842 when she is to be free, and her increase if any she hath after the death of my wife are to be sold until they arrive to the age of thirty six, and the money arising from the sale of said woman and increase to be equally divided among my daughters viz. Ann Norris, Mary Sargeant's heirs, Rachel Miner and Elizabeth Perry.

To my son David I give a negro man named Hiram until the second day of December 1844 when he is to be free. A boy named Tom I give to my son John Lamb until the 12th day of June 1854 when he is to be free. A boy named George I give to my son Pierce Lamb until the year 1847 October 7th when he is to be free and they are not to have until the death of my wife without her consent, and as said boys become free, they are to have a good suit of Cloathes, a good axe each and delivered up to Court to receive their freedom agreeably to my wish, and they are not by any means to be sold or hired out of the County during their time of servitude.

My land - First to my daughter Elizabeth Berry I give twenty acres of land to be laid off to her at the South East corner, and run far enough to include her house and spring, and at the end to run an East course far enough to include twenty acres, this I give to my daughter during her life, after her death one half of it is to go to Rachel Jane Berry; and the other half to her son John and Sally Ann and Elizabeth W. Berry and Catharine Berry to them and their heirs forever.

To my son John, Basil and Pierce I give the ballance of my land to be laid off to them as equally as possibly can be done agreeable to quantity and quality, and each ones part to be laid off to them convenient to where each of them now lives by Charles Ward, James Ward and James Grant, The orchard on said farm are to be for the benefit of said sons. John Lamb is to have eight rows of trees in said orchard, beginning between the eighth and ninth row, and running to where his fence now stands, the ballance to be equally divided between Basil and Pierce, the said orchard is to be kept well trimed and under a good fence and no stock to run on it: through said farm there is to be a free pass way to Pierce Lamb's upper line: before my death my said sons are not to make use of any more apples than will sufficiently serve for family use, none are to be marketted, but they may raise any crop in it they please. To my daughters living in the state of Ohio Ann Norris, Rachel Miner and Mary Sargeant's heirs I bind my sons John Lamb, Basil Lamb and Pierce Lamb to pay equally among them the sum of nine hundred dollars from each one to commence paying one year after they get possession of the land above mentioned, and to pay one hundred dollars annually until the whole is paid, and the land I give them to be held in security for the payment of the same until all is paid. And to Richard Stephenson my said sons are to pay forty dollars in one year after they get possession of their land, and to John Shepherd or his heirs they are to pay eight dollars as above described viz: one year after possession of the land. and out of the profits of my estate there is fifty dollars to be paid in the Washington branch bank in part payment of a note I am endorser for my son Basil. And I give my sons John, Basil, and Pierce full power to collect all my outstanding debts. And as administrators to this my last Will and testament I appoint my sons Basil, Pierce and John. The acknowledgment of which I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this twenty fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty three.
